BAND MUSIC... BRIEF SPEECHES... PRAYERS OF COMFORT

Pottstown Gives 12 Men Rousing, Tearful Send-Off to Service

By FRED C. SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

POTTSTOWN said goodbye yesterday morning to its first group of draftees since the Korean war with band music and brief speeches that couldn't quite rise above the sound of mothers crying and the tolling of a train bell.

Leaders of borough civic and servicemen's organizations made and all-out effort to have the formal send-off indicate to the 12 young men that the town cared.

There was a 21-piece band; a uniformed color guard, and 20 other older veterans who had rolled out at 6 a. m. or earlier to march in tribute. There were ministers, draft board and borough officials.

None of the three speeches, at the Reading company station lasted more than a minute. None of the speakers let personal experiences or opinions intrude on the occasion.

EARL F. NEWTON, chairman of the Pottstown Veterans committee, which arranged the send-off, said: "We are here gathered to pay homage to the boys who are leaving."

Burgess William A. Griffith said:

"The prayers of the community go with them for their safety... I hope you boys will be good boys, will take it with a smile and will come back safely."

Charles L. Schulz, chairman of Local Board 110, said: "I hope that you will all return safely, that us showing our strength will mean it will not be necessary to do any more fighting."

The Rev. John B. Frantz, as president of the Pottstown Ministerial association, followed the speeches with a short prayer.

As his amplified voice went over the dead silence at the station platform, saying, "Give us the courage and strength for the living of these days," there was a sudden loud sob from a mother.

As her son turned to say a quiet word to her, she burst into tears. There were suppressed sobs from other mothers. Handkerchiefs that had been brought out, then put away since the young men got up in the morning, were brought out to stay until the train left.

WHEN THE PRAYER ended, Newton stepped to the microphone to say: "Will the band give us a little lively music to liven the thing up until the train comes?" His voice didn't sound too lively.

The band played a few selections, then adjourned for a wait that was brightened by coffee and doughnuts passed from the Salvation Army's mobile canteen by Capt. Meral E. Cox and George Lambrecht. The cold, unexpectedly mild weather left draftees and mothers without their appetites.

Moving among the draftees and their families were the Rev. Frantz and the Rev. David V. Leahy, assistant rector of St. Aloysius Catholic church.

The dozen draftees were split into two main groups during the long nine-minute wait for the 7:20 o'clock train to Philadelphia. In one group were young men surrounded by mothers and friends— young men leaving for the first time.

IT WAS ENTIRELY a Pottstown farewell, for the largest group of well-wishers—a score or more—had come down to say goodbye to two Stowe men, John Bracaglia, 101 East Howard street, and John Sackal, 308 Berks street.

In another group were some of the draftees who had seen service previously, including Ernest P. O'Connor, 260 South street, who held the bulky manilla envelope of draft records, marking him as the leader named by Ross Longaker, draft board clerk.

They were engrossed in conversation with young men staying behind. "What, are you going, too?" was the normal greeting by a draftee to a new friend who approached them.

The train came right on time. As it rounded the bend the "lively" music of the band was overridden by the quick, dull tolling of the train bell.

The last goodbyes were over quickly. The young men kept pointing their handbags or hands at the train, as if to tell their mothers that they had to go quickly.

The usual crowd of commuters respectfully made room for the draftees.

A boy who looked about 12 ran alongside the train in tears waving at the car his big brother had entered. The father went to comfort the youngster and came back shielding his own face with his hands.

The band broke into the National Anthem. The train pulled away. The last thing the people on the platform saw was Lamar L. Gaugler, Merchants hotel, who had been in the service before, standing on the last step of the train vestibule, smiling.

BEFORE THE station ceremony, the parade representing all servicemen's organizations left the American Legion home, King and Franklin streets, at 6:35 o'clock.

The parade stopped at borough hall for the draftees. Through a confusion of signals, the paraders set off down Charlotte street toward High street a few seconds before the draftees came out.

192 NEW BOYS TO START AT HILL
17 Pottstown Area Youths To Enrol as Local School Commences 100th Year

One of the largest enrolments of new boys from the Pottstown area in the history of the school will mark the beginning of the 100th year of The Hill today.

Seventeen area students will be among the 192 new boys from 34 states and 15 foreign countries who will register at the school. The registrations will be conducted from 9 o'clock this morning until 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Old boys will return to The Hill tomorrow, giving the school the largest enrolment of students from the Pottstown area in the past ten years. Classes for all students will begin Friday.

Gordon L. Galloway, son of Gordon B. Galloway, 334 Oak street, formerly a student at the Pottstown Junior High school, and Dale W. Moyer, son of LeRoy R. Moyer, 817 North Evans street, formerly a student at the Pottstown Senior High school, will enter the school on scholarships.

Inductees Sent To Ft. Dix for Basic Training

There was some good news yesterday afternoon for the 12 Pottstown area draftees who left for the Army a few hours earlier, and there was some bad news for a former Pottstown man who did not leave.

The Philadelphia Induction station at Schuylkill arsenal, where the 12 were sworn into the Army, reported that the 12 were sent by bus to Ft. Dix, N. J., for their basic training. Ft. Dix is among the closest to Pottstown of all Army camps.

Bad news for the one man came from R. Ross Longaker, clerk of Local Board 110, who mailed to the U. S. attorney general's office all the draft records of Thomas Eugene Osborne.

Osborne had registered with the Pottstown board when he was a (Continued on Page Twelve)

Local URW Votes Solid To Oppose Buckmaster

Special to The Mercury

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 19—All six delegates of Pottstown Local 336, United Rubber Workers (CIO), lined up solidly against L. S. Buckmaster, international president, at the national convention today as an expected split in the contingent failed to materialize.

The concord among the delegates came as a surprise, since it had been predicted they would split 3-3 on important issues.

Advance reports had forecast the division even though one of Buckmaster's outstanding opponents, Robert E. Garber, former local president, had swept four of his supporters into posts on the delegation.

Buckmaster's strongly-entrenched forces rocked the opposition in their first real test of strength this morning, however, when they voted down a proposal to have the convention sit as a whole on the appeals of seven ousted field representatives.

The proposal, which was actively supported by Garber yesterday, had been defeated in a show of hands vote by a count of 251 to 213. Garber demanded a roll call vote on the issue, which was then put off until today.

The solidity of the Pottstown delegation was shown during the roll call when all its members cast their 17 votes for the measure. Regardless of their efforts, the proposal was turned down by a vote of 894 to 489.

ALTHOUGH LOCAL 336 has six men at the convention, it has an odd number of votes. Five delegates, Garber, William Rhoades, local president, William Ecker, Fred Matthews and Eugene Danowski each have three votes, while the sixth, Lawrence Francy, has only two.

All of the appeals, made by men discharged by Buckmaster following his re-statement as resident at the Toronto convention a year ago, will be heard and voted upon by the international's executive committee.

It is possible, an effort may be made Friday to bring the issue before the convention again.

Pottstown Fans Join Series Tickets 'Race'

By LARRY DAVIS
(Mercury Staff Writer)

About 400 Pottstonians have their fingers, toes and legs crossed this morning. A few of them are out hunting for four leaf clovers and some others are rubbing the old rabbit's foot like talismans.

These 400 hopefuls are part of the mad scramble all over the East by baseball fans seeking tickets to the first World Series in which the Phils will play since 1915.

IF the Phils take the National League pennant (there doesn't seem to be too much doubt they won't) and

IF the local fans dropped their requests and funds for reservations at the right time, and

IF nothing happens to the mail sacks, and

IF the Phils' management doesn't sell out the 42,000 seats it has available for the classic before getting to the Pottstown applicants, Then there'll be some mighty happy people in town.

BUT—some are going to be disappointed.

THE GRABBAG for tickets—two to a customer—kicked off at one minute after midnight last night. But the preliminaries have been simmering around town for the past two days, ever since the optimistic Phils management announced that it would receive applications for tickets beginning today.

Fans by the drove took over from there.

Approximately 200 applications for the ducats were in the local mail last night after the faithful Phils' followers practically broke their necks to get to the Pottstown banks, the (Continued on Page Nine)

Freight Breaks Down, Stalls Crossing Traffic

Traffic was tied up for more than three-quarters of an hour yesterday morning when a broken coupling stalled a Reading company freight train across the Hanover street crossing.

Police detoured traffic down High street to Charlotte or Franklin streets and over South street to Evans street.

The tie-up began shortly after 11 a. m. as a 90-car freight train on its way to Reading crossed Hanover street. It ended between 45 and 50 minutes later, police reported, after repairs had been made and the track was cleared.

The stalled freight train delayed a passenger train for seven minutes, a Reading company spokesman reported. The train was due to arrive in Pottstown from Philadelphia at 11:38 a. m.

After many of the freight cars had passed the Hanover street crossing, the "draw head," or coupling between the first two cars, broke.

It took 40 minutes to remove and replace the broken pin in the coupling and get the train underway again.

PATROLMAN GEORGE Wayock was stationed at High and Hanover streets to keep traffic from turning down Hanover street toward the blocked crossing.

He sent automobiles and light trucks down to Charlotte street, and heavy trucks two blocks further to Franklin street. Wayock explained that (Continued on Page Twelve)

Councilman to Offer Police Schedule Plan Similar to Strange's

Gerald J. Daly, Ninth ward councilman and member of the police committee, said last night he would submit his own suggestions for a new police schedule to Burgess William A. Griffith.

Daly noted that his schedule was essentially the same as the one drawn up by Earl R. Strange, police committee chairman, and given to Griffith after the Sept. 11 council meeting.

"Our two programs are about the same," Daly said, "although I drew up mine independently. The system I think would be best happens to be the same as Mr. Strange's."

Arguments over the placing of the policemen began on Sept. 1, when the Burgess and Chief James A. Laughhead posted a new schedule, to include the two new sergeants and two additional patrolmen authorized by council.

This schedule, however, left most of the borough without foot patrolman protection late at night and during the early morning hours.

IN ADDITION, officers criticized it because it forced most of them to work ten weeks at night before going on the day shift for two weeks and because it gave a few men permanent day shift.

Strange's and Daly's schedule gives no one day work preference. All officers and sergeants would be put on eight-hour schedules, rotating each two weeks.

Strange's system was praised by the officers themselves. Daly's program is virtually the same as Strange's, the Ninth ward (Continued on Page Twelve)

Graterford Boy Injured When Struck by Auto

Nine-year-old Douglas Crenshaw, Graterford, suffered a possible fracture of the right leg at 4:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon when he was struck by a car while walking on Route 29, two miles north of Collegeville.

The youngster was walking north on the highway when he was struck by a southbound car driven by Augustus P. Leister, 71, of Rahms.

At Pottstown hospital he was treated for abrasions of his body. State police of the Collegeville substitution investigated.

Turn-About News In Tipster Contest Is Best of Week

Firemen who were the victims of a fire and a policeman who was a victim of an auto accident provided the turn-about news that won prizes yesterday in The Mercury's weekly news tip contest.

Mrs. Earl B. Moyer, 438 Main street, Trappe, was awarded the first prize of $5 for her tip on the $25,000 blaze in Trappe firehouse that ruined the ambulance and badly damaged the fire engine.

Second prize of $3 went to Douglas Schwank, 940 Queen street, who telephoned The Mercury that a car had been overturned at Price street and Center avenue. In the car were Patrolman Robert Houser and his wife, Aleatha, both of whom were injured.

Arthur P. Brown, 249 Queen street, who's proved before now that news tip winners can repeat, did it again with a tip on the death of a bat at High and Hanover streets. He won the third prize of $2.

Moreau Rau, Geigertown, captured a bonus cash prize for a quick tip on a three-car accident in which all three drivers were workers at Firestone's Pottstown plant.

No one need wait for another fire in a firehouse or for a man to bite a dog before getting in on the weekly cash awards. If it's news to you, it's probably news to the town. The phone number is 2263.

Bait Set to Allure Coeds At University of Alaska

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Sept. 19 (AP)—In this far northern trap-line country, they're putting out bait to lure coeds to the girl-shy University of Alaska.

The Fairbanks Retail Merchants association took action after an appeal from a delegation of male students. The collegians appealed for some kind of action to bring more girls to the campus; they are tired of the ratio that gives them only every fourth dance at campus parties.

The association responded with an offer to pay travel costs of any Alaska lass "of reasonable age" who will enroll as a student. The offer is good until Oct. 1. The association even assures arrangements for part-time jobs if needed.

Harriman Speaks Out For Defeat of Taft; Hits Senator's Acts

HOUSTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—W. Averell Harriman, President Truman's trusted advisor, called today for the defeat of Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) in November.

He asserted before the American Federation of Labor convention that the Ohioan "cannot be trusted" with a role in the world crisis. Taft is co-author of the Taft-Hartley labor act.

Harriman said Communist objectives would have been furthered if Congress had carried out some of Taft's positions.

"We no longer can afford to leave in positions of high responsibility men who fail to recognize that American leadership is essential to the peace of the world," Harriman said.

Taft, in Columbus, Ohio, had no comment, Senate Republican Leader Wherry of Nebraska said in Washington. Harriman was trying to blame others for the Administration's "betrayals." Wherry said Harriman was using "an old Russian dodge to charge one's own guilt to others."

"Senator Taft has stood and is standing as a bulwark for the security and freedom of the United States," Wherry said.

HARRIMAN DEPARTED from his prepared speech to say Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) is "playing right into the hands of the Communists."

McCarthy, called at an American Legion rally here last night for the resignation of Secretary of State Dean Acheson. He said General George C. Marshall, as secretary of Defense, "will follow Acheson's orders."

Copies of Harriman's text carried a note to reporters from Charles G. Ross, press secretary to President Truman.

White House sources in Washington said they did not know whether Harriman cleared his address with Mr. Truman but said they were sure Harriman said nothing distasteful to the President.

Harriman said the most charitable thing one can say about Taft "is that he knows not what he does."

He said Taft fought the Marshall Plan "on every occasion," voted against the North Atlantic treaty and against military aid to other countries.

Harriman described Korea as an example of a new Communist technique of using a satellite to attack and attempt to conquer a free nation by force of arms.

BUT THE DRAMATIC reaction of 33 members of the United Nations, he said, proves the unity of purpose of the free world.

"There is only one way to prevent force from being used and that is to have a force strong enough to meet it," he said.

The world crisis, he said, is a result of a few men in the Kremlin organizing a world conspiracy for world domination, a ruthless conspiracy to prevent minds and to exploit misery.

"Stalin is a realist." He said, "I do not believe he wants to start another world war unless he feels sure of victory."

Harriman said another such war can be prevented.

"American foreign policy has one central objective: Peace. All our programs are designed to gain this objective."

"Of immediate importance is the development of adequate defensive forces in the free world."

"We must continue to give inspiration and leadership to the free world through the United Nations."

Harriman was the first of several Administration spokesmen. Secretary of Labor Tobin is to speak tomorrow, followed on Thursday by Vice President Barkley.

Ill-Fated Soldiers Names Filed in Congress Record

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—Senator Martin (R-Pa.) placed in the Congressional record today the names of the 33 Pennsylvania National Guardsmen killed in a train wreck in Ohio last week.

The men had been called into Federal service and were on their way to Camp Aitken, Ind., for training.

Martin told the Senate they "died for freedom" just as soldiers on the Korean battlefield. He also said their names, showing many national origins, were a lesson in Americanism.

"Real Americanism is distilled in the great melting pot of our nation," he said.

RIDGE ROAD

Mr. and Mrs. Heinzelmann, who were recently married, have returned from a wedding trip through the New England states and are at home in Lansdowne. Mrs. Heinzelmann is the former Miss Eleanor Smiley, Kimberton.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis E. Holloway, Bethel road, were recent dinner guests of Mrs. Emma Spiese at her home in Cedarville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Smiley, Norristown, were recent guests of Mr. Smiley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Smiley, Kimberton.

Twenty-six persons enjoyed the hayride recently from the Holden farm. A doggie roast concluded the evening's fun. Those who planned the event were Joyce and Robert Miller, Edgar Peiffer and Leonard Bumm.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Cook, Maple Shade farm, were recent callers at the home of Mr. Cook's sister, Mrs. Robert Strawhacker, Radnor road, Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Bowman and infant daughter, Susan Jane, Arch street, Spring City, returned to their home recently after spending a short time with Mrs. Hicks parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Hicks, Ridge road.

Visitors at the Hicks home during the past week included: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pennypacker, Mrs. William Albright, Miss Barbara High, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Layman, Mrs. James Strickland, Mrs. Kenneth Miller and daughter, Elizabeth Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Casper P. Hicks, Miss Retta Hicks, Harry Hicks and Miss Mary Lippencott.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks attended the recent reunion of the Pratt family at the Way home near Kennett Square.

Mr. Walter P. Cook celebrated her birthday anniversary recently. The Big Brothers class of Brownback's church held a doggie and corn roast recently at the church.

A baseball game provided the amusement. The committee in charge included: Paul Keeley, Samuel Bauer and William Krug.

The business meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Kimberton Fire company held recently at the fire house, developed into a bean shelling party. The members operated in preparing some of the lima beans to be served at the turkey supper sponsored by the auxiliary on Saturday, Nov. 4.

The beans had been picked by Mrs. Calvin Miller and several of the members blanched and packaged the beans, and they were placed in Mrs. John Kasitz's frozen food locker.

More will be prepared later. The supper will be served from 4:30 to 8 p. m. and the ticket sale deadline is Oct. 30. No tickets will be available at the door.

Earle S. Ash, chairman of the committee in charge of the flower show held recently, gave a complete report of the event which was largely attended. She thanked all who had helped with the project. While the show was not held as a money-making venture, contributions paid all the expenses.

Merchandise club winners were Mrs. William Davis, Mrs. Walter Webster and Jean Pecharo.

Announcement was made that the annual Christmas party for children will be held with the firemen sharing the expenses. The date selected is Saturday afternoon, Dec. 16. Mrs. Walter Webster received the gift of the month.

A social time followed the meeting, during which refreshments were served by Mrs. Florence Carey, Mrs. Oliver Smiley and Mrs. Howard Eppelimer. Mrs. Clarence Funk and Mrs. John Kasitz comprise the refreshment committee for the October meeting. About 40 members attended the session.

Rally Day will be observed at Brownback's Evangelical and Reformed church and at Bethel Methodist church Sept. 24. Plans are being made to celebrate the event.

At Brownback's church, Dr. Ralph Vlier, Eastern secretary of the board of home missions, will be the speaker. The Sunday school orchestra, under the direction of LeRoy Wheatly, will play. Musicians are Carolyn and Annette Prizer, Mary Ruth locker. More will be prepared later. The supper will be served from 4:30 to 8 p. m. and the ticket sale deadline is Oct. 30. No tickets will be available at the door.

Earle S. Ash, chairman of the committee in charge of the flower show held recently, gave a complete report of the event which was largely attended. She thanked all who had helped with the project. While the show was not held as a money-making venture, contributions paid all the expenses.

Merchandise club winners were Mrs. William Davis, Mrs. Walter Webster and Jean Pecharo.

Announcement was made that the annual Christmas party for children will be held with the firemen sharing the expenses. The date selected is Saturday afternoon, Dec. 16. Mrs. Walter Webster received the gift of the month.

A social time followed the meeting, during which refreshments were served by Mrs. Florence Carey, Mrs. Oliver Smiley and Mrs. Howard Eppelimer. Mrs. Clarence Funk and Mrs. John Kasitz comprise the refreshment committee for the October meeting. About 40 members attended the session.

Tydings Easy Victor in Md. Primaries; Truman Buddy Squeezes to Nomination

BALTIMORE, Sept. 19 (AP)—Democratic voters gave U. S. Senator Millard E. Tydings a thumping endorsement in Maryland's primaries yesterday.

The state's curious unit system for primaries—something like the electoral college—was all that saved another friend of President Truman.

Governor William Preston Lane, Jr., ran well behind in the popular vote, but the unit system gave him the Democratic nomination for a second term over George P. Mahoney, former chairman of the State Racing commission.

Tydings was in the national limelight because he tried to squelch Senator Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) for charging that Reds infest the State department in Washington.

Two Democratic opponents and two candidates for the Republican nomination upbraided Tydings for this in the campaign. They said he was whitewashed the McCarthy charges to cover up a Truman administration softness toward Reds.

They also said he failed as chairman of the Senate armed services committee—failed to see we were prepared for the Communist invasion of South Korea.

Tydings met these charges head on and wound up with more than twice the vote of his two Democratic rivals put together. He has a close-knit, personal political machine in Maryland—has had ever since President Roosevelt tried to purge him in 1938. His opponents were political unknowns. It was at best a fuzzy picture of how the public feels about Tydings versus McCarthy.

Lane squeaked in with 84 of the 152 unit votes, seven more than needed to win.

Each of Maryland's 23 counties and each of six Baltimore legislative districts gets as many votes in the party nominating conventions as it has seats in the Maryland General Assembly.

These seats are distributed on an ancient formula loaded in favor of the rural areas. Lane carried all but seven of the counties, plus one Baltimore district.

THE UNOFFICIAL popular vote, 1278 of the 1429 polling places reporting, was 166,526 for Mahoney; 157,628 for Lane.

Lane has been one of those most vocal for re-juggling the representation in the Legislature. Now it has saved his political bacon, temporarily at least.

Theodore Roosevelt McKeldin, former mayor of Baltimore and a two-time loser in tries for governor, had no opponent in the Republican primary. Lane beat him four years ago.

The Republicans won't know until the official canvass who their candidate against Tydings will be. The returns were too incomplete to assign unit votes. The popular vote for 1917 polling places was 29,243 for D. John Markey, retired National Guard general from Frederick county, and 26,731 for John Marshall Butler, Baltimore attorney.

All six Maryland congressmen—two of them Republicans—are on the ballot again in November. Only three had contests.

FBI Work Described By Special Agent for Lions Club Members

The organization and duties of the Federal Bureau of Investigation were described for Pottstown Lions club members last night by Jay Smith, special agent.

Smith, working out of the Philadelphia FBI office, is in charge of Berks and Schuylkill counties. Since 1924, he said, when J. Edgar Hoover became head of the department, the FBI has grown from a few hundred agents to 4000 agents and 52 field offices.

All agents are subject to a two-hour call for duty and are responsible for investigating any of 125 violations as well as protecting internal security.

SMITH POINTED out that the Federal organization merely gathers facts for the Attorney General's office; it does not prosecute.

Its service to local police authorities include the maintenance of a file of 113,000,000 fingerprints, 18,000,000 of them of known criminals; maintaining a laboratory service for analyzing handwriting, blood, bullets, cloth, metal and glass, and running 12-week courses in police work.

All these services are free of charge to local police authorities, Smith noted.

In addition to passing rigid mental and physical qualifications, an applicant for a job with the FBI must be a graduate of a law school or a certified public accountant with two years experience and must be of "unquestioned loyalty."

To men in the service, Smith said, the initials FBI mean "Fidelity, Bravery, Integrity."

Fifty club members heard his talk, including three new members inducted last night—Foch P. Martin, Leon K. Hausman and Dr. Claude O. Clements.

President Paul R. Hoffman was in charge of the meeting.

Brotherhood Hears Methodist Minister

The spiritual battles of mankind were discussed by the Rev. Martin J. Buntin, pastor of the First Methodist church, at the monthly meeting of the St. James Lutheran Church Brotherhood night.

Addressing 25 of the brotherhood in the St. James Sunday school room, the Methodist pastor listed these four spiritual thoughts in his talk, "Wearing the Armor of God":

1. If we have no enemies, then we probably have gone over to the enemy's camp.
2. If we have no battles, we have surrendered.
3. If men do not hate us for what we preach and live, our preaching and living are not truth.
4. If men do not despise us for what we do, then we are not doing the right things.

A marimba solo was offered by Miss Vivian Emery accompanied at the piano by Miss Myra Fry, and group singing was led by Jonathan Pink. Devotions were conducted by the Rev. Edward S. Horn, St. James pastor.

Bicentennial Plans Discussed by Group

Eight members of the Pottstown bicentennial celebration committee met at Pottsgrove manor yesterday noon.

The committee was appointed by Burgess William A. Griffith the past year.

The group had a general discussion of tentative plans for the celebration in 1952 of the founding of the borough.

These included a pageant, a music festival, special sports events and observance in borough churches. Scheduled definitely for the bicentennial year is a parade of Pottstown firemen.

The committee decided that most of the activities should be concentrated in a bicentennial week. Throughout the year, however, a few other special events would be scheduled.

Chairman Ernest V. Hunter and Co-Chairman Mrs. James I. Wendell were in charge of the meeting. Others were Carroll L. Rutter, Jacob R. Sotter, Daniel S. Drumheller, Dr. Gustave W. Weber, Ralph H. Spare and Isaac Thomas.

Over 100,000 products are made entirely or partly of stainless steel, from jewelry to jet engines.

Unwed Woman Goes To Britain for Babies

LONDON, Sept. 19 (AP) — A British medical journal said today an unmarried European woman traveled to Britain three times to have babies free under this country's socialized medicine.

The Medical Press, an independent journal, said she deserted each of the babies promptly to British charity. It said she came from a "neighboring country." It said the case was not an "isolated" one.

Any foreigner may have free medical attention here under the National Health program. The Ministry of Health, which controls the program, declined to comment on the Medical Press report, but said there has not been a significant number of such cases.

Optimists to Get Report On Circus Benefit Results

Pottstown Optimist club members will learn at tomorrow night's meeting how much money was made for their boys' work fund at the circus they sponsored the past Friday.

The Optimists had several hundred handicapped children attend the Mills' brothers circus in Mill park.

Roland T. Brauch, Optimist club president, said that "a full accounting" of the proceeds would be made at tomorrow night's meeting.

He believed a profit would be shown, but emphasized that tickets and money still are coming in and that a final tally still is to be made.

It is said there are more than 150 different kinds of cherry pie.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1950

Abuse of anyone generally shows that he has marked traits of character. The stupid and indifferent are passed by in silence.—Tyron Edwards.

Leave Them Behind!

POTTSTOWN'S first inductee group left for the war yesterday. Sad was the farewell at the railroad station. Yet impressive was the fine arrangements set up by Earl F. Newton and his veterans' committee.

Pottstown made the departing inductees feel that this community loves them, is back of them in spirit, wants them to be strong as hardships pile up.

As draftees leave, as Marines depart, as other men and more Pottstown men are called up out of the various reserves and national guard, more and more will we hear about a large percentage being married.

Then stories will say: "Their families will join them as soon as they are settled at their new posts."

The best advice to most of those men and their families is:

Don't do it. Let the "little woman stay back home, and keep the kids in school among friends. If they're too small for school, don't put them through the wringer of frequent changes of camps and stations.

Unless the temporary soldier is better fixed financially than most of us are, and thus able to afford premium prices for what little housing is available and able to stand the cost of frequently moving his family, he is only asking for trouble when he moves them out of the old home town. He won't save anything, that's for certain.

If things are going to be tough financially while he's in uniform, the best thing he can do is to stay close to the post and send most of his pay home to supplement the government family allotment. Most of his living costs (food, clothing, housing, etc.) will be taken care of by Uncle Sam anyhow.

Oddly enough, soldiers' having the families living near their posts more often than not turns out to be a bad morale factor rather than good. Wives and children are greatly upset as increasing restrictions indicate outfits are ready to go overseas. Financial worries put a strain on everyone concerned.

Files from World War II provide ample evidence of the endless unhappy complications which develop when soldiers (and sailors and airmen) take their families to war with them. Many unit commanders lost needed sleep and got gray hair trying to straighten out the family affairs of Pvt. Jones, Cpl. Smith, Sgt. Brown, and the rest.

But the problem isn't one for enlisted men only. For officers, too, the best advice is "Leave the family at home."

Comic Books at the Front

JUDGING by some of the books and plays written about it, World War I must have been a pretty literary war.

It was full of good, bluff fighting men—often Britishers—who had a little book of poems, or maybe some of Montaigne's essays, in their pockets.

Somehow, the war had made them realize just which book meant the most to them, and they got quite a lot out of it when the Germans were especially thorough in shelling the trenches.

Don't take our word for it; just try to recall a play like "Journey's End," or some war books like Siegfried Sassoon's.

These thoughts are brought to mind by an Associated Press report that it found a G.I. on the Korean front reading a comic book.

Soon we will be hearing that practically all G.I.s read comic books just as they did in World War II.

We will suspect such reports as being, in part, propaganda put out insidiously by the comic book publishers.

As for the G.I.s who do read comic books, that's fine with us. If those synthetic and slow-paced thrillers can take some of the fright and some of the pain out of war, we would be the last to suppress them.

But we do admit that the picture of the British subaltern reading Shelley's "West Wind" under fire is more romantic. And we knew an American doughboy—they were not called G.I.s in those days—who carried a little copy of Pascal's Pensees across a good bit of northern France.

We will not go so far with the comic book people as to say that our doughboy friend did not have the better of it.

Probably he had encountered a better teacher sometime in his school years than the AP G.I. had the good fortune to meet.

Parents Express Views on School Bus Service

All Not So Fortunate

To the Editor: In reference to the letter from "A Former Student" ("Exercise With Hurt," Readers Say, Sept. 14).

The student in question was fortunate to have his (her) parents or neighbor's parents to take him (her) to school when the weather was unfit. There are plenty of children who weren't and who aren't as fortunate.

I'm sure the majority of mothers would be glad to pay added taxes for a nice, new school for Upper Frederick and New Hanover townships.

I, for one, put out $2.50 of gasoline every week to accommodate my own children which, if he (she) can multiply, comes to $100 for the full school term.

So, you see, a little added taxes for a new school or proper transportation which would give our children a healthy break would be well worth it.

I wonder if she would like (if the student is a girl) her boy friend to call for her in a horse and buggy. If she would protest and say, "So-and-so has a car. Why should I ride in a buggy?" he would say then, "This is good enough for me; it was good enough for my parents and so it should be good enough for you."

Thank you that one over.
Pierkienville RD 1 A MOTHER

Pav for Bus Service

To the Editor: In answer to Walter Albright ("Claims Special Privilege," Readers Say, Sept. 15):

The people on Pottstown RD 3 are only asking what they pay for and that's bus service.

He says public school children enjoy that privilege of bus transportation. Private and parochial school children can, too, if they'd let their schools have some of the tax money the parents of these children pay for public schools. Or aren't we human out here?

Besides, if you read your paper right, public schools are overcrowded as it is.

We aren't the only ones asking for bus service. Other sections in Pottstown can use it, too.

We are not asking for any special privileges, only what we are paying for as taxpayers.

'Signal Publicity'

To the Editor: It was indeed gratifying to note the splendid support your paper gave to our work during our recent conference and biennial camp meeting held in Pine Forge, Pa.

The pastor, officers and members of the First S. D. A. church in Washington, D. C., want you to know we do sincerely appreciate your kindness shown in such a definite and far-reaching way in which you put our work before the public.

The First church, being a member of the Allegheny conference under whose auspices these meetings were held, and to which such signal publicity came, feel it our duty to express our deep appreciation for the same.

We wish you continued success with God's blessings.

Compliments on Twins Story

To the Editor: My compliments to Mary Jane Fegey on that very interesting article about the Hoffecker twins.

It just does something for you to read of such wholesome people, to know we have such families bound by love. They are a credit to our home town.

Congratulations—for What?

To the Editor: It certainly was a shock to read in The Mercury how a group of North Enders congratulated one another when that big shopping center project was killed.

Were they really so happy that a potentially big business was driven out of Pottstown through their efforts? Or were they satisfied that they killed something the most of us in the North End would have been happy to see, a real shopping center convenient to our homes?

To top it all off, I remember that these people even hired an out-of-town lawyer to help them fight the shopping center. I don't see why they even live in Pottstown.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

GOLDIE S., 29, is a famous clergyman's daughter.

"Dr. Crane, I don't believe in prayer any more," she spoke angrily, "for I have had it out steadily for two years and it didn't work."

"When I first came to Chicago two years ago, I met a man who was everything I had ever dreamed of."

"I was crazy about him and wanted to win his affection. So every night for two years I prayed earnestly that he would fall in love with me, but last week he married another girl."

"So I don't see why my father and other cleverer, wise people to pray, since it doesn't get results!"

TOO MANY PEOPLE are like Goldie in regarding prayer as an easy formula by which to gain their ends without hard work and diligent planning.

They apparently look upon a prayer as the Aladdin's lamp for Christians.

But the primary purpose of prayer is to give one the detached viewpoint and new perspective by which to tackle his problems and solve them by his own strength.

Prayer should give us a new psychological "road map" by which to reach happiness and success, but the "gasoline" for attaining those destinations must still be furnished by the person praying.

Prayer isn't supposed to eliminate work or enable lazy folks to get what they want by the simple act of "wishing" even though they camouflage their wishes under the guise of church ritual.

When the Swedish scientist Alfred Nobel wanted a mountain removed and cast into the sea, he implemented his prayers by resolutely setting to work until he invented dynamite. His own brother was killed during the experiments.

So when you pray, always remember that the miracle which you crave can only be accomplished with your own brain through your sprouting a new idea or invention, or gaining a new perspective which may show you the childish selfishness of your previous petty desire.

God prefers us to enter into prayer so our minds will become "polarized" around our problem until a solution pops out of the blue. That new idea is God's answer and often is as miraculous as Nobel's dynamite.

According to an old story, two frogs were dropped into a barrel half filled with milk. They wished to get out, and prayed accordingly.

But one of them sat on the bottom of the barrel while it prayed, whereas the other kept trying to jump above the surface of the milk.

The passive frog never got out of the barrel, but his active brother found an answer to his prayer. For his vigorous plunging and struggling, churned the layer of cream atop the milk and produced a pad of butter.

This frog then hopped on the butter pad, and using it as a springboard, jumped over the side of the barrel and out into the freedom of the external world.

Miracles don't occur in answer to the prayers of the lazy and indolent!

Today they've set their first starting date — "Cow-poke," the story of a modern cowboy, will go before the cameras November first. Robert Mitchum will probably play the lead role, and Robert Parrish has been signed to direct. Parrish is the oscar-winning film editor who has previously directed just one film, Dick Powell's "Cry Danger."

Didja know that the guy Barbara Peyton is visiting in Las Vegas every weekend is Zeppo Marx?

When Shelley Winters and Charles Feldman supped together at Deauville was it business or pleasure?

FLORENCE MARLEY back from Tokyo filming of "File 112." Inform me Japanese girls keep asking what they need to know to catch a man — and Japanese male actors need instruction in the art of 'kissing' Florence just what was the glint in your eye when you told me this — a twinkle or?

Gerald Meyer's second directorial stint finds him holding the reins on a cast including David Brian, Arlene Dahl, Mercedes McCambridge, Paula Raymond, Barry Sullivan and Lon Chaney. The pic's "Inside Straight," and if Mayer can bring the cast in on schedule his career'll be made.

Patricia Medina, fresh out of "The Valentino Story" goes to England for another J. Arthur Rank film — this one a musical. Interesting that at Paramount it's plain Lawrence Olivier, while at Metro it's SIR Cedric Hardwicke. None of that SIR stuff for Larry while he's in Hollywood. No SIR!

DAN RUS GETS the best break of his career — a top featured role in "Go for Broke." Dore Sharpy's big production soon to roll at Metro. RUS just finished "Only The Valiant" at Warners.

The first California Mystery Flight DID go to Lake Tahoe. I went along just to find out, leaving Lockheed airport Friday evening and returning last night. Thanks Ned Crawford and associates for an exciting time.

Coleen Gray spent the weekend teaching her Susie, 4 years old, horseback riding at Apple Valley. Now Susie wants to be Gene Autry's partner!

Tonight's Charleston Night at Charlie Morrison's Mocambo, and comic Steve Allen'll help me emcee the affair.

CHARLTON KESTER, who played the part of the "Bandwagon" in a Circus Historical society, publication, which says the "July 11 issue of The Pottstown (Pa.) Mercury has an illustrated front page story of Archie Royer."

How's Your Mind?

THE ANSWER, QUICK!

1. In the nursery rhyme, why did Old Mother Hubbard go to the cupboard?

2. Can you complete the following expression: "_____ as Adonis?"

3. What process is applied to soft coal to produce coke, coal tar and illuminating gas?

4. What is a "navvy"?

5. What wedded pair of puppets has aired its marital troubles before millions of people in many lands?

FOLKS OF FAME — GUESS THE NAME

1. Born in Algiers, Ind., June 6, 1897, he became a salesman for a Chicago manufacturing company and a special representative for a Wisconsin plow works. He established his own advertising agency in Green Bay, Wis., and was connected with several other businesses. He served in the Quartermaster department of the United States Army in World War I, and has been United States senator from Indiana since 1944. Can you name him?

2. This once-popular commedienne and character actress was born in Boston, Mass. For 20 years she was on the stage before entering films in 1923. See if you can recognize her not only by her photo, but by some of the pictures in which she appeared: "Ice Bound," "Let's Get Married," "Whoopee Cruise," etc. She was Aunt March in "Little Women," played in "Alice in Wonderland," and was Betsy Trotwood in "David Copperfield." "Murder on Honeymoon," "A Tale of Two Cities," "Parnell," "Paradise for Three," "Little Miss Broadway," "The Conquerors" with Richard Dix and Ann Harding, and "The Story of Vernon and Irene Castle" are later pictures of hers. She died in 1942. Who was she?

ALL AROUND THE TOWN

Funerals Desolate Kovach... Yonkovitch Called...

★ IMPRESSIVE — To Warrant Officer Emil J. Kovach, of Pottstown's National Guard, the rituals attending the funerals of the 33 Pennsylvania National Guardsmen killed in a train wreck the past week was "a drama—a play unfolding in acts."

Kovach a former actor with experience in Hollywood and on the legitimate stage, headed the military detail at the first of the 33 separate funerals and then at another ceremony the following day. When the train arrived from Coshocton, Ohio, where the wreck occurred, the first coffin was lifted off by Pottstown men. The two-mile procession through the streets of Wilkes-Barre began shortly after. Tanks led the long train of weapons carriers with their flag-draped cargoes and khaki-clad soldiers marching slowly alongside. The crowd on the sidewalk sometimes was 12 persons deep, but the only sound was the rumble of the tanks and purr of motors. Many spectators wept. . . .

IN THE ARMORY, families of the crash victims wept softly or whispered quietly among themselves. The lone cannon boom that signalled the arrival of the train heightened the tenseness and emotion. When the first weapons carriers rolled onto the armory floor to take up aligned positions, their grief reached its peak. With each family were a National guard officer and a nurse to treat those who might be overcome. At the funerals, many family members did collapse. Company members participated in five funerals before they left the armory at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. They arrived in Pottstown at 7:30 o'clock. The hospitality in Wilkes-Barre was first rate but the men were glad to be back in Pottstown. It had been grim duty.

★ TAPPED—John J. Yonkovitch Jr., 345 Cherry street, a lieutenant in the Navy's organized reserve, has received orders to report for active duty Friday at Norfolk, Va., where he will be assigned to the Atlantic fleet. He's been operating his father's grocery store at Cherry and Evans street in recent months, after his father's health failed and he moved to Cedarville. The reservist's mother said she'd operate the store, commuting from Cedarville.

The son was graduated from New York State Maritime academy, New York city, in 1944 with an ensign's commission in the Navy, with which he served in the Pacific. Since 1946, he's been attending two-hours weekly drill sessions with the reserve's Battalion 416 in Reading.

★ ALSO GOING—Sgt. Morris Brendlinger, Gilbertville RD, who served six years with the US Army in World War II and who remained in the infantry inactive reserve, has been called back to duty. He passed his physical examination, will report to Camp Campbell, Ky., by Sept. 27. . . . George F. McCormick, 101 Warren street, is undergoing a recruit training at the Naval Training center, Great Lakes, Ill. . . . Both Pottstown and Memorial hospital report that the Korean war has not yet reached into the ranks of staff nurses. None of them yet have been called to active duty or received their orders, hospital executives said. A few staff nurses served with the armed services and are eligible for call. Others might go, if there was an emergency call for volunteers sent out.

★ ON THE HOUSEHOLD FRONT—Metal lamps soon may be impossible to obtain. Raw materials are hard to get, zinc has taken a big jump. The latest rise presages an increase in prices. . . . General Electric raised prices of major appliances—refrigerators, water heaters, freezers—$10 to $50 . . . FAR AWAY PLACES—Publicity for The Mercury turns up in the oddest places (oddest to us, that is). Earl H. Strouse, ex-Pottstown postman of 550 Willow street, forwards a copy of the "Bandwagon," a Circus Historical society, publication, which says the "July 11 issue of The Pottstown (Pa.) Mercury has an illustrated front page story of Archie Royer."

Teen-Age Dances To Begin Sept. 30 In 'Y' Auditorium

Dances for teen-agers of the Pottstown area will begin Saturday night, Sept. 30, in the YMCA. It was announced Monday night after a meeting of the Recreation commission.

Francis Donnon, recreation director, said that Pottstown Local 211, American Federation of Musicians (AFL), would furnish the music without cost, until Dec. 31, at least, for the second consecutive year.

The dances will be held in the YMCA auditorium from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. each Saturday night. There will be no admission charge.

The borough school district gave the Recreation commission permission to use the Lincoln school area now given over to gardens for a new baseball diamond.

The commission now uses diamonds at Memorial park, the Junior High school and during the Summer, The Hill school.

Donnon said the new baseball diamond would be built in the Spring, "as early as possible."

AT 7:30 O'CLOCK Wednesday night, Sept. 27, the commission and the Memorial park directors will meet in borough hall with Allen B. Burritt, recreation park planner for the National Recreation association, to discuss Memorial park problems.

Park planning was criticized by Helen M. Mauney, leadership training specialist for the association, the past June.

Two months later, the Recreation commission and Memorial park directors met and agreed to hold another session to iron out planning problems.

Donnon reported to the commission on the activities of the City Industrial Baseball league, City Industrial Softball league, Sunday School Baseball league, Knee High Baseball league, the baseball school, the Golden Age club, Recreation orchestra, Junior High school bowling league, Bethany center and the recent fishing rodeo.

Mrs. Florence Manthorne, playground director, summarized the Summer's playground activities.

J. Max Creswell, Recreation commission president, was in charge of the meeting. Members present were H. Bert Shaw, Leonard A. Hiltwine and L. LeRoy Johnson.

Al Jolson in Korea To Entertain Troops

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Sept. 19 (AP)—Al Jolson, "62 years young," was entertaining troops in Korea today, just as he did in all theaters of war during World War II.

The first big-time entertainer to reach the Korean fighting area said:

"I've been trying to get here since the war started. And here I am." Jolson met Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, eighth army commander, soon after his arrival.

"I know you're busy, general," Jolson said, "but I hope you'll be able to come to one of my shows." "I hope so too," Walker replied, "but you know I've got a show of my own."

Vets Group Proves Town Wide Open to Saboteurs

McKEESPORT, Sept. 19 (AP)—A group of Veterans of Foreign Wars commandos proved that McKeesport is wide open to saboteurs, members of the organization said today.

Spokesmen said it took 35 minutes to execute a well-prepared plan last night to "mine" with dummy explosives the city's bridges, power plants, water systems, steel mills and the Bell Telephone system.

Police weren't even notified of the commando operation. The VFW crew risked being shot as real saboteurs to prove its point.

GRANTED LEAVE

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., Sept. 19 (AP)—Dr. Douglas Whitaker, dean of graduate study at Stanford, has been granted a 10 month leave to become chairman of the National Research council in Washington, D. C.

Stage to Pulpit

Ignoring the stares of fellow students, former movie actress Colleen Townsend walks across the campus of Pasadena college, Pasadena, Calif. The 22-year-old actress, a Presbyterian who gave up her film career to work with youth groups, has enrolled in college to study for ministry.

Local Elks to Vie In Ritualistic Event

Pottstown Lodge 814, BPOE, will compete in district ritualistic contests to be held at the local lodge Sunday afternoon, it was announced Monday night at a lodge meeting.

Pottstown, Reading and Coatesville lodges will be included in the competition. Five other lodges in the Southeastern district competed the past Sunday in Philadelphia. Judges for both contests will be the same.

Plans also were made to receive the district deputy grand exalted ruler, John Bozette, Coatesville, on his official annual visit to the lodge Nov. 6.

The Pottstown chapter's three delegates to the Elks State convention, George A. Lessig, William P. Wolfe Jr. and Frank Kurtz, reported on the convention to the 50 members present. The conclave was held the past month in Scranton.

O. Donald Kunkle, exalted ruler, was in charge of the meeting.

TREASURY BALANCE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—The position of the Treasury Sept. 15: Net budget receipts, $248,826,712.51; budget expenditures, $618,946,114.51; cash balance, $3,826,002,392.58; total debt, $256,930,345,578.71; decrease under previous day, $1,142,249,599.21.

Steel Workers Vote To Seek Wage Hike At District Conclave

Bethlehem Steel Local 2177, United Steel Workers of America (CIO), voted Monday night to recommend that "substantial" wage increases be asked at the District 7 convention in Philadelphia, Oct. 7.

J. Alfred Marquet, president, said after the meeting in CIO hall, that contract negotiations probably would begin next month. The Steel Workers' contracts expire Dec. 31.

Two other resolutions for the district convention also were approved by the Local 2177 members. One was for six paid holidays (none are provided now), and the second for the company to furnish equipment used on the job, such as gloves, shin guards, and in some cases, tools.

Eight delegates and two alternates were chosen for the Oct. 7 meeting.

Five of the delegates automatically will be the top officers. They are Marquet, James K. Dilliplaine, vice president; Charles A. Hartman, financial secretary; Kenneth Worral, treasurer, and Benjamin Wade, recording secretary.

The three others were Jack Smith, John Blinsfeld and Bard E. Rosenberry. Alternates were Richard Bechtel and Henry Dozier.

Local Man Bequeaths Estate to His Children

By Staff Correspondent
NORRISTOWN, Sept. 19 — In a short, pencilled will, Edward S. Noll, 87, of 118 North Washington street, Pottstown, who died the past March 11, bequeathed his $4822 estate to a son, Ralph, and two daughters, Sara and Alice. The will was written April 3, 1927.

YOUR BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARIES

TODAY'S HOROSCOPE

THE YEAR will be progressive financially and socially—new friendships are formed. Watch expenditures closely. The child born today will be practical, painstaking, alert, shrewd and generally fortunate, but occasionally erratic and difficult to understand.

Today
Marlene Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lambert, 30 West Seventh street, aged 14 years.

Arthur E. Amwake 3d, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Amwake Jr., 29 Riverside avenue, Kenilworth, aged one year.

Michael S. Jacobs, 422 Water street.

Dale Marsteller, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Marsteller, Douglassville RD 2.

Roger Bartholomew, 330 King street.

Robert Jobe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jobe, 306 Diamond street.

Leonard Welsh, son of Mrs. Harriet Welsh, 1201 Cherry street.

John Scheffey, 341 North Franklin street.

Dorothy Feather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Feather, Pottstown RD 4.

William Godshall, Pottstown RD 4.

Olive Mae Burdan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Burdan, 317 Grant street.

Millie Mae Meade Feted With Personal Shower

Miss Millie Mae Meade, 425 Lincoln avenue, was guest of honor at a personal shower given recently at the home of Miss Phoebe Leader, 548 Chestnut street.

The honored guest will become the bride of Mr. Wilber Alderfer, Limerick, on Sunday, Sept. 30, in Trinity Evangelical Congregational church.

Miss Leader will attend Miss Meade as maid of honor. Gifts were attached to a sprinkling can and the room was decorated in blue and white. Games, refreshments were enjoyed.

Without Painful Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions. If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait. Try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Initial Meeting Held At Season's Start by Lincoln School PTA

A get-acquainted type of meeting was the highlight of the first session of the Parent Teacher Association of the Lincoln school this season last night in the schoolhouse.

Mrs. George Bickel, president, presided. Under new business the president appointed an auditing committee to revise the by-laws. The new mothers were welcomed by Mrs. Frank Gross, program chairman.

She presented each mother with an oak leaf pin, the symbol of the PTA, inscribed with the object of the association. She also introduced the teachers.

Miss Dorothy Barkel talked about the school and informed the members about their supervisors and the work of the school nurse.

The Lincoln safety patrol leader, Mrs. Erma Engle, extended an invitation to all new members to tour the building. She asked for the parents cooperation on the present set up of having to share with the Franklin school students.

At the next meeting the school doctor and nurse will give an explanation of the school child's examinations.

AMAZING NEW AUTOMATIC OIL HEATER SAVES YOU UP TO ONE-THIRD ON FUEL COSTS!

THOUSANDS ACCLAIM
BENEFITS OF THE
NEW "SUPERFLAME"

Home Owners & Heating Engineers
See Remarkable New Oil Heater
Proved Better 4 Ways

The remarkable story of the new Superflame Oil Heaters is thrilling news to families who can use a space heater. Designed and produced by one of America's oldest manufacturers of oil heating equipment, they come in a variety of models—in a wide range of prices—to meet every requirement and budget. Among the wonderful, proven advantages offered are the following:

Cleaner Flame

The handkerchief test proves Superflame produces a cleaner flame. Place a nickel plated rod in the stove pipe for ten minutes. Then wipe rod clean with white cloth. Not a trace of soot! We dare any other oil burner to make this test.

Economy

Positive, unsurpassed fuel saving are yours with Superflame. Three major stages of combustion, instead of two, give increased efficiency and definite savings in fuel. Superflame burns clean at any dial setting.

Less Draft Required

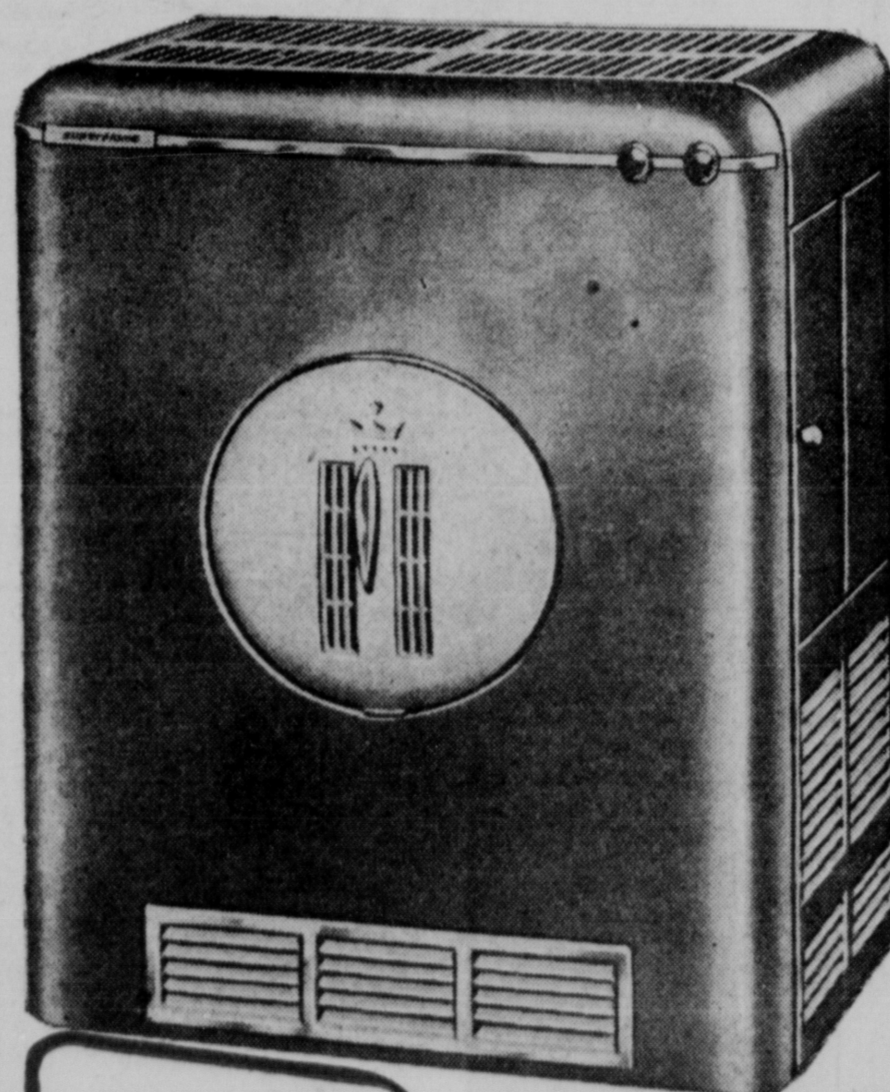

Scientific draft test proves less draft is required by Superflame. The ordinary oil burner requires far more draft than many chimneys can furnish. This condition causes fuel waste, smoking, soot-ing, etc. Superflame needs just about half the draft of other heaters.

More Heat

The Superflame heater is unsurpassed for heat circulation. It continuously circulates and distributes an even flow of freshly warmed air from floor to ceiling . . . keeping cold floors warm . . . and giving you complete comfort in any weather.

Beauty THAT ADDS CHARM

North End Firemen Clear Over $600 On Benefit Festival

The North End Fire company cleared more than $600 on its festival Aug. 18, it was announced at a meeting last night in the Junior High school auditorium.

Wilbert F. O'Dell Jr., member of the festival committee, told the 40 members present that $561 had been collected up to a week ago. At least $40 more was handed in last night.

John B. Hartenstein Jr., president, who was in charge of the meeting, said later that the company was "well satisfied" with the results of the big carnival held behind the Junior High school building.

He and Charles E. Bast, who headed the festival committee, commended company members and members of Pottstown's other three fire companies as well as Pottstown and Sanatoga fire police for co-operation in the affair.

BUT EVEN AS the knot was being tied on the festival, plans for another fund-raising project were in the fire.

Pending a favorable reaction from North End merchants, the company plans to sell Christmas trees this December at spots in the North End.

"We want to discuss it first with the merchants before we definitely go ahead and contract for the trees," said Hartenstein.

Members believed that the past Christmas an outside firm covered much of Pottstown with Christmas trees and paid nothing into the town but a small rental for sidewalk space.

"We thought it would be better on a thing like that to keep the money in Pottstown and for a worthy cause," commented the company president later. The Christmas tree idea originated with Bast.

THE SITE-CHOOSING committee—Charles R. Gochbauer, S. Paul Seeders, A. Emery Lord and company officers—has spotted several possible locations for the fire house, members reported.

Action will be withheld, however, until the company has sufficient revenue to deal with.

The company voted to change its meeting night from the third Tuesday to the fourth Monday of the month because of numerous conflicts on the former meeting date.

street to Hanover street, then to High street, without parade, but the two groups joined forces before reaching the nation.

Leading the line of march were Newton, the burgess, the Rev. F. F. Scholz and Charles J. Custer, draft board member.

The 12 who left were John and Joseph Beck, brothers, Fagleyville; Donald L. Bach, 125 North Adams street; Charles H. Mauger, 756 North Grant street; Robert H. Schaeffer, Pottstown RD 3; John R. Sell, 475 Farmington avenue; William F. Slonaker, 234 North Evans street; Van A. Wente, 172 North Hanover street; Gaugler, O'Connor, Bracaglia and Sakal.

Brookside Board Holds Routine Business Session

A brief routine business meeting of the board of governors of Brookside Country club was held at the club last night.

Eleven members of the board attended the session which was in charge of Elmer J. Jackson, president.

Jackson said only the regular monthly business of the group was discussed.

SERIES TICKETS—

postoffice and a postal substation. In setting up what has been described as a completely fair system of doing out the 92,000 seats available for four games, the Phila post office announced it would okay applications on a first-come, first-served basis. All applications were to be accompanied by money order or certified check, and none bearing a postmark earlier than midnight last night would be considered.

WHAT WILL happen to Pottstown's bid for seats to the baseball spectacle is anybody's guess.

One thing is sure. The three eager beavers who dropped their applications in the mail yesterday afternoon in a premature burst of enthusiasm can plan on seeing the game on television or listening to it on the radio.

Their envelopes won't bear the proper postmark, and consequently will get the old heavenly when they're received in Philadelphia.

The other 197 are gambling, pure and simple, with time and luck. Two strikes and three balls against them, so to speak.

ANY APPLICATION mailed anywhere in the borough after 6 o'clock last night is assured of having the proper postmark. But there's a sad gimmick even to this. Unless the bid was mailed from the postoffice itself before 8 p. m., or dropped into the letter box outside the postoffice before 5 a. m. this morning, it won't even get to the World Series city before three minutes after 2 o'clock this afternoon arriving there via the 12:52 p. m. train from Pottstown.

Anything deposited at the postoffice or dropped in the box outside it between 6 p. m. and 5 a. m. was assured passage to Philadelphia on the 8:26 a. m. train which arrives there at 9:35 o'clock.

As far as could be determined last night, only three Phila-bound letters went out without the proper postmark.

MANY HOPEFUL Series fans were taking no chances. Two spot checks at the postoffice last night showed a fairly constant number of baseball addicts posting their applications.

Between 7:30 and 8 o'clock, five persons drove up, hopped out of their cars, peered at the pickup schedule posted on the outside mail box, and dropped their envelopes with a sigh of finality.

Between 10:45 and 11:15 p. m. the scene was repeated, with seven persons wishing their applications "bon voyage."

There's still the question of how many others will beat Pottstonians on the first-come, first-served proposition. Indications are that the general rush is terrific, with no one willing to stick his neck out on an estimated number.

POTTSTOWN WAS definitely money order conscious yesterday. From 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. the main postoffice serviced 199 customers, 109 of whom made out applications for World Series tickets. An average day varies between 100 to 150, according to Norman C. Rhoads, the money order clerk.

Of the 109, reserved seat applications amounted to 64, with box seats being asked for by 45 fans.

Rhoads said the stream of people to his window was constant all day, and he wrote "three or four" orders after the regular 5 p. m. closing time.

Box seats are $17.50 a pair, plus an additional 60 cents for money order.

order and registry fee. Reserved chairs cost $13 a pair, plus 60 cents. An even 25 money orders for seats to the series were written by Miss Jean Boyer at post sub-station No. 8 in Binder's Drug store. Her rush came at the close of the day, when she made out seven in less than half an hour.

She wrote up 17 orders for the reserved and eight for the box spots.

THE BUSINESS in certified checks throughout the borough was far above normal.

The Security Trust company had 15 checks certified, the National Iron bank reported 15, and the Citizens National bank accounted for 25 more. A state-ment from the National Bank of Pottstown was not available.

Some applicants, it appeared, were making a tongue-in-cheek effort to beat the "two to a customer" proviso laid down by the Phils, since reports of fans buying two or more money orders and checks were frequent.

FROM POINTS outside Pottstown, the story was about the same. In Spring City, the postoffice did a business of 30 or better money orders for the series. Money order Clerk Harry Zerby required the help of Postmaster Willis C. Latshaw between 4 and 5 p. m. when the rush was experienced.

Miss Mary DeHuff, money order clerk at the Roversford postoffice, said about 25 applications were written there.

J. Lowell Groff, president of the National Bank of Roversford, reported that only about six or eight certified checks were made out for series tickets.

William Latshaw, cashier for the National Bank and Trust company of Spring City, said 25 or 28 persons had checks certified for forwarding to the Phils.

In Boyertown, interest appeared somewhat off the general rule for the day. The National Bank there wrote only two certified checks for tickets, while the Farmers National Bank and Trust company had 12.

The postoffice there reported the sale of 12 money orders earmarked for the Phils.

AMONG THOSE in this area who sent their applications, more or less holding their breath as they did, were the following:

Harry Hoffman, 28 Maplewood drive; Morton Greenberg, 21 South Keim street; Russell M. Graham, 717 North Charlotte street; Lawrence C. Marquette, 211 West street; Laine Keeler, Pottstown RD 1; Oscar H. Darlington, Pottstown RD 1, and Joseph Yuros, 68 South Charlotte street.

Girl Student Poses Air Force Problem

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—A freshman girl at St. Louis university who described herself as "just as capable and just as patriotic as any boy" has posed a problem for the Air Force.

Margery Lawton, 18, insists on admission to the university's Air Force ROTC unit. "I think we are in for total mobilization," she explained.

Before the major in charge could tell her that such things just aren't done, Miss Lawton said there is nothing in Air Force regulations to prevent it, that she had read up on it.

The major has called for advice from 10th Air Force headquarters, Selfridge Air Force base, Mich.

URW CONVENTION—

negotiations with management which are binding upon the international membership.

Twenty-nine non-controversial amendments to the constitution were approved almost without opposition. Most of them dealt with corrections of punctuation and wording in existing provisions.

Garber, still wearing his chef's hat and smoking a cigar, took an active part in the discussions over the amendments. In most instances he asked for clarification on how the changes would affect Local 336.

A BRIEF RESPIRE from the wrangling over the amendments came when the convention was addressed by Allan S. Haywood, national vice president of the CIO and director of organization.

Describing the labor movement in America as "a bulwark against Communism," Haywood declared: "Our organized labor today is the real missionary of democracy abroad."

He also blasted Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) and called him "the type of a man that makes Communists."

Speaking out against the Taft-Hartley act, Haywood went on to say:

"The illustrious senator was raised on a silver spoon, never knew what it was to work; never knew the pangs of hunger and never was kicked from pillar to post.

"Yet, he deems himself capable of writing a 'fair' labor law."

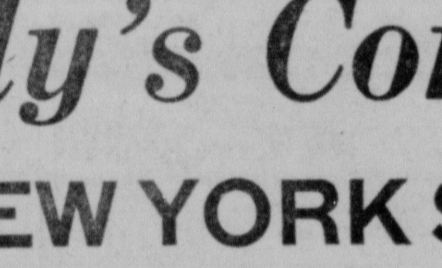

THE AMENDMENT increasing the local membership dues to boost the income of the international is expected to reach the floor tomorrow. It is slated to be opposed vigorously by Buckmaster's opposition in order to keep the international in financial difficulty.

Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers (CIO), and Cyrus S. Ching, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation service, are scheduled to speak tomorrow.

Thursday, the delegates will vote for international officers. It was reported that Buckmaster, who has increased his strength from 1949 when he was elected almost unanimously, believes he will be re-elected without much difficulty.

Final reports, amendments and resolutions are scheduled to be brought before the group Friday. Any effort to have the re-instatement appeals brought before the convention will have to be made at that time.

GOP to Hold Rally At Moose Oct. 24

A pre-election Republican rally will be held Tuesday, Oct. 24, at 8 p. m. in Pottstown Lodge 369, Loyal Order of Moose auditorium. It was announced yesterday.

The meeting will be the seventh of eight such rallies in Montgomery county sponsored by the county Republican committee.

The final affair will be held Thursday, Nov. 2, at 6 p. m. at City Hall, Norristown, and will be attended by the top party officials in the State.

Among those present will be Gov. James H. Duff, candidate for the U. S. senate; Judge John S. Fine, candidate for governor; State Senator Lloyd H. Wood, of Norristown; candidate for lieutenant governor; Congressman Samuel K. McConnell Jr. and other leaders.

The general election will be held Tuesday, Nov. 7.

Inquiries Caused By Weather Balloon

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., Sept. 19 (AP)—A spherical object that floated slowly over Southeast Missouri for several hours late yesterday apparently was a runaway weather balloon.

Hundreds of persons saw the balloon-shaped object and flooded newspapers and the State Highway patrol with inquiries.

Lt. Claude Haverty, of the Air National guard, who took his jet plane up to about 35,000 feet to solve the mystery, said "it was some kind of weather balloon, I'm sure."

Haverty said he kept the thing in view for almost an hour, but could not get close to it. "It just looked like a big weather balloon that got caught up about 60, 70, or 80,000 feet and was drifting along," he said.

More Heat For Less Fuel

with all these advanced features!

Rotapower Unit combines all moving parts in a single cartridge type unit—for easy inspection and adjustment!

Thin-Mix Fuel Control guards fuel supply. Meters oil—controls pressure—eliminates wasted oil.

Built-In Turbulator can't get out of adjustment. "Eggbeater" action completely atomizes fuel—gives top combustion efficiency!

Oil Conditioner of specially wound cotton yarn traps the tiniest impurities—only clean oil reaches the nozzle!

Delco-Heat Coordinated Controls keep temperature within 1° of desired heat. Added economy—because fuel is used only when heat is needed!

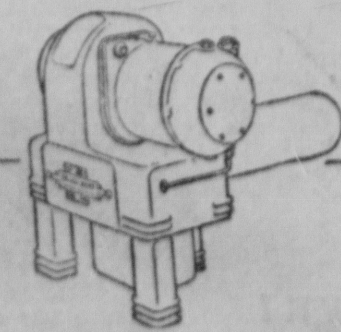

We'll install a new Delco-Heat Oil Burner in your present furnace or boiler—and give you a completely automatic heating system that will operate at rock-bottom cost!

You'll say goodbye to old fashioned, back-breaking hand firing . . . and you'll get big savings in time, money and labor!

Remember, you're doubly sure with Delco-Heat. For it's a General Motors product—built by men with the "know-how" to build the best. And because we've been factory-trained by Delco-Heat—we have the "know-how" to install it right.

Your installation can be made quickly and easily—in just a few hours time. Come in now and see the handsome Delco-Heat Oil Burner—and the entire line of Delco-Heat equipment.

OBITUARIES

MRS. ELSIE M. (GILBERT) CALLAHAN, 60, a native of Pottstown, died suddenly of a heart attack in her Philadelphia home at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Callahan, a daughter of the late Lyman B. and Mary J. Gilbert, went to Pottstown public schools and lived here until 40 years ago, when she moved to Philadelphia and made her permanent home there.

While she lived in Pottstown she was a member of the First Methodist church.

Her husband, Eugene W. Callahan, died in 1947. The couple had been married 32 years.

Mrs. Callahan is survived by three daughters, Ruth, of Pleasantview road, Sanatoga; Dorothy, of Philadelphia, and Irene, wife of George Archer, of Upland, Delaware county; one sister, Sidnie, wife of Edward Graham, of Pleasantview road, Sanatoga; one brother, Magistrate Keller H. Gilbert, of Philadelphia, and four grandchildren.

Services will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Pine Swamp Evangelical church. Interment will be in the adjoining cemetery.

MRS. KATHERINE (MOYER) GOULDY, 72, wife of John Gouldy, SCHWENKVILLE, died at the Memorial hospital at 8:10 o'clock last night. She was admitted to the hospital at 5 o'clock after she suffered a stroke at her home.

A daughter of the late Abram and Tillie (Espanish) Moyer, she was born in Limerick but lived most of her life in Schwenkville.

She was a member of Heidelberg Reformed church, Schwenkville.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Gouldy is survived by a daughter, Pauline, at home, and two sisters, Mrs. Clara Pannepacker, Schwenkville, and Mrs. Hannah Pennacker, Trappe.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete last night.

MATTIE M. (FRYER) RIEGNER, 76, wife of the late William Riegner, 246 OAK STREET, died last night in Pottstown hospital. She had been a patient at the hospital for the past two weeks for treatment of a heart condition.

She was a daughter of the late William and Catharine (Yergey) Fryer and lived in Pottstown all of her life. She was a member of Trinity Reformed church.

Her husband preceded her in death in February, 1945.

She is survived by two brothers, George B. Fryer, Philadelphia, and Howard Fryer, Cleveland, Ohio.

Funeral arrangements, in charge of a funeral home at 359 King street, were incomplete last night.

Funeral services for MARY (FEYKO) KOREN, wife of George Koren, 352 CHERRY STREET, were held yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from her home.

Solemn high requiem mass was celebrated at 10 o'clock in St. Aloysius Catholic church.

The Rev. George P. Hiller was celebrant; the Rev. Francis A. Donovan, deacon, and the Rev. David V. Leahy, sub-deacon.

The Rev. William M. Begley, rector, was in the sanctuary and also officiated at graveside rites in Holy Trinity cemetery, Stowe.

Bearers were George Feyko, John J. Koren, John Koren, Alfred Koren, Joseph Koren and Frances Koren.

Funeral services for DANIEL HARTZ, of ELVERSON, husband of Mattie (King) Hartz, were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from an Elverson funeral home.

The Rev. George Ranck, pastor of Elverson Evangelical United Brethren church, officiated. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Members of Caernarvon Lodge 557, IOOF, Morgantown, conducted graveside rites and acted as pallbearers. Bearers were George R. Cook, Harry Rothas, Harold Gable, Clyde Buchanan, James Roberts and George Riegner.

WALTER T. SCOTT, 70 of PLATTSBURG, N. Y., who had been visiting his daughter, Hazel, wife of W. R. Croasdale, Church road, Limerick, died yesterday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock in Pottstown hospital.

He was seized with a heart attack in the Croasdale home yesterday morning at 11:50 o'clock and was taken to the hospital in a Good Will Fire company ambulance.

The visit, which he had been making with his wife, Edith (Clemons) Scott, was part of his vacation from his work as conductor with the Delaware and Hudson railway company, which operates between Albany and Montreal, Canada.

Although well past retirement age, Mr. Scott had not considered quitting his work. This December, he would have been employed by the company for 50 years.

He was born in Crown Point, N. Y. Surviving, besides his wife and daughter, is a sister, Mrs. A. E. Bartholomew, of Whitehall, N. Y.

Funeral arrangements in charge of a funeral home at 112 North Washington street, will be made today.

Acheson, Vishinsky Balk For Handshaking Pose

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (AP) — News photographers covering the opening of the U. N. General assembly today wanted a picture of Secretary of State Acheson and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky shaking hands — but they had to work out a complicated arrangement to get it.

When they asked Acheson to walk to the Russian desks, he declined. Vishinsky likewise refused to go over to the space reserved for the American delegation. Then the photographers suggested that they meet in some neutral spot in the assembly chamber. This the two diplomats agreed to do coming up to each other from opposite directions.

Gas Reported Successful As Aid to Psychoneuroses

PARIS, Sept. 19 (AP) — An American psychiatrist reported today success in use of carbon dioxide gas in treating various psychoneuroses, including stuttering, homosexuality anxiety and inferiority complexes. He is Dr. L. J. Meduna, of the University of Illinois Medical school. He will report on his method of treatment to the International Psychiatry congress at the Sorbonne, University of Paris, next Monday.

Two Youths Escape Injury When Auto Rolled Over Twice Near Titlow's Corner

Two Chester county youths were hauled uninjured from their car which hit a cinder pile beside Route 100 near Titlow's Corner and rolled over twice last night at 8:30 o'clock. John Chonka, 19, Star route, owner and operator, and James Taylor, 18, also Star route, left the completely wrecked 1946 two-door sedan without a scratch.

They had been traveling north on highway. Just before the first curve south of Titlow's Corner, a truck forced them off the road and out of control, Chonka told South Coventry Constable Howard G. Seibold later.

The car hit the cinder pile, skidded and flipped over at least twice, said Mrs. Gertrude Randall, Pottstown RD 1, who saw the accident.

She and her husband were driving in the opposite direction at the scene at the time. They helped both youths out of the car and offered to take them to the hospital. They declined the offer.

THE CAR, VALUED at about $1000, was a total loss. In the middle of the front seat the roof was pushed to the level of the steering wheel.

Seibold quoted Chonka as saying, "I felt the roof coming down over my head, so I sort of slouched down."

The vehicle was towed to a Knauertown garage. State Troopers Gerard Robinson and Edward Maloney, of the Devon barracks, investigated the accident.

Infant Chokes to Death As Bean Swells in Throat

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 19 (AP) — A year-old girl choked to death last night on a swelling bean after doctors thought they had saved her from an earlier attack.

Mrs. Katherine Patterson saw her daughter, Nancy Lou, with a bag of beans. The child started choking suddenly. State police rushed her to a hospital where a tube was placed in her throat and normal breathing was restored.

Three hours after being returned to her home, Nancy Lou began choking again and died before officers arrived.

$7000 Bungalow Near Collegeville Is Complete Fire Loss

A $7000 bungalow two miles below Collegeville on the Perkiomen creek was completely destroyed by flames yesterday afternoon.

No one was in the five-room summer house at the time. It is owned jointly by Fred K. Miller and Richard N. Seasholtz, both of 42 Walnut street, and Russell Winter, 428 Washington street, Royersford.

Mr. and Mrs. Winter had been occupying the home recently. But earlier this month Winter was hospitalized in Norristown and Mrs. Winter was visiting him yesterday afternoon.

The fire was discovered at 3 p. m. by Mrs. Ralph Van Kanan, who lives 200 yards west of the bungalow. She notified a telephone operator, who in turn, called fire companies.

FLAMES HAD burst through the roof when Mrs. Van Kanan saw the blaze, and when firemen arrived at the scene the building and all furniture and other belongings inside were completely engulfed in flames.

With booster streams, they kept flames from spreading to the nearby woods.

Firemen from Oaks, Mont Clare, Jeffersonville and Lower Providence township companies fought the blaze.

Archie Shiner, assistant fire chief of the Lower Providence company, said it was impossible to determine at the time how the fire started.

Midget Fly Swarm Meets Out Misery

The Children of Israel had their locusts and last night Pottstown had its Ephemeridae flies.

They caused no damage whatever but the little mites descended on the business section in clouds.

They came through screens, got into food, got into ears, hair and eyes. On desks of late workers they appeared as winged periods on writing paper.

George C. Whiteley Jr., biology teacher at The Hill said the insects, with their eighth of an inch-long bodies and big transparent wings fitted the description of the Ephemeridae order.

If that's what they were, Pottstonians can be sure of two things—they won't be back today and they didn't take anything with them.

In the adult, or flying-around stage, the Ephemeridae live sometimes only an hour or two, almost never more than a day. And, as adults, they never eat anything.

Whiteley said they hatch in huge numbers at once and can be wafted by a light breeze. Yesterday's warmth following recent rain may have been enough to bring on the hatch, he said.

Today's weather will be less favorable for hatching — partly cloudy and cooler and tomorrow will be about the same.

Small Squirrel Rescued From Blacksnake's Coil

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 19 (AP)—This little squirrel can be glad there are squirrel hunters.

Dewey Jones, a sales engineer, related today that another hunter found a three-foot blacksnake coiled about the three-week-old squirrel. The man, whose name Jones did not get, killed the snake.

The squirrel was unconscious, but revived and accepted food.

It now is recuperating in Columbus, and will be released probably on the State House lawn.

Protests MacArthur Report

Russian's Jacob A. Malik (center) vigorously protests inclusion of new MacArthur report in the U. N. Security Council agenda at Lake Success, N. Y. He said he "would not be able to participate" in any discussion of the report at this time. Gen. MacArthur reported he had positive proof of Soviet and Chinese Communist aid to the North Koreans as late as 1950. Secretary General Trygve Lie listens at right.

POLICE SCHEDULE —

Councilman explained last night, with an additional suggestion for putting the sergeants in patrol cars, instead of having them walk away from their men and unaware of what is going on in other parts of the borough.

Daly emphasized, "I'm not trying to tell the burgess what to do. As Mr. Strange said, all we can do is make suggestions. It's up to the burgess to place his officers."

The councilman added that he wanted to discuss the proposed new system with Griffith at the next police committee meeting.

The past Wednesday night Griffith said he wanted to give other councilmen a chance to make suggestions about the police system before acting on Strange's proposals.

He declared then that he would wait "not more than a week" to receive other proposals.

Unfinished Dwelling, Plus Oncoming Cold, Spurs Parole Plea

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Sept. 19—Home is where the heart is, and even an unfinished home is better than the Montgomery county prison.

At least that's what Carl Ott, Graterford builder and carpenter, formerly of Royersford RD 1, indicated in a plea for a parole today.

Ott asked the court to restore his freedom so he can complete construction of his home before cold weather sets in.

He pointed out his home is partially constructed and his wife and child are waiting for its completion.

The plea was filed by Attorney James R. Caiola, Norristown, with Judge E. Arnold Forrest, Judge Forrest set Friday, Sept. 29, as the day for a hearing in the case.

OTT WAS FOUND guilty on a morals charge during a trial before Judge George C. Corson the past June 9. He was sentenced on June 16 to pay a fine of $100 and costs and sentenced to serve six to 23 months in the county prison.

In his petition, Ott said he had paid his fine and the costs and cites his good prison record. In addition, he asserted his imprisonment has worked a financial hardship on him and his family.

He has learned his lesson, he declared, and feels he has been punished sufficiently.

Eye is the name of an ancient town in England.

Marines Forge Over Han, Early Seoul Entry Expected

TOKYO, Wednesday, Sept. 20 (AP)—Thousands of U. S. Marines swarmed across the Han river today and a confident Marine officer predicted they would be in Seoul before the day was over.

Right behind them were tanks and artillery.

New Vietnam Attack May Herald Start of Indochina Offensive

SAIGON, Indochina, Sept. 19 (P)—Two more French outposts near the border of Red China were under attack by Communist-led Vietnamese forces tonight and reliable sources said there were rebel troop movements all along the frontier.

The possibility increased that the attacks were the prelude to the long-predicted Vietnamese offensive, but this was not yet clear.

The French announced that Vietnamese rebel units, "newly armed in China," had been used for the first time in the capture of the northern outpost of Dongkhe, 100 miles northeast of Hanoi.

Tonight, it was learned that Pakha, a French army post 125 miles west of Dongkhe, has been under attack for three days.

Thatkhe, ten miles south of Dongkhe, also was being attacked.

Parachute troops had been dropped at Thatkhe earlier to stage a counterattack on Dongkhe.

Parachute troops also were dropped directly on Dongkhe, despite bad weather, and a column of Moroccan infantry was rushed northward in an effort to recapture the outpost.

HANOI WAS THE scene of intense air activity, as the French hastily assembled a force of transport and fighter planes.

A French communiqué said the forces which captured Dongkhe had not been completely identified, raising speculation that Chinese Communist troops participated. French sources at Hanoi declared, however, that the attackers were exclusively Ho Chi-Minh's Vietnamese troops.

The rebels were using machineguns, field artillery and heavy mortars of American make which apparently had been given to Chinese Nationalists and captured by Chinese Communists.

Other Communist-led Vietnamese troop concentrations were said by a French spokesman to be near Monca, Langson and Laokay, French outposts stretching from the coast for 300 miles along the border of Red China.

These concentrations could mean a general Communist offensive all along the frontier is in the making.

Dongkhe fell in a three-day battle to at least four Vietnamese battalions, a communiqué said.

Missing Sander Secretary Is Found Dead Near Home

HOOKSETT, N. H., Sept. 19 (P)—The pretty young secretary of Dr. Hermann N. Sander was found dead today after she disappeared yesterday. Her body was found in a brook behind her farm home.

The girl was Helen A. Maciolek, employed for seven years as secretary for Dr. Sander, acquitted last March of a charge of murder in the death of a cancer patient.

Officials said cause of death was not known immediately.

The attractive aide to Dr. Sander since she was graduated from high school in 1943, vanished yesterday afternoon in woods near her home. Her pet dog, an Eskimo Spitz, returned without her.

Searchers, including Dr. Sander, tramped through the underbrush throughout the night without success. They were ordered out of the woods today by Police Chief Lindsey Rice who said they might trample clues which a bloodhound could scent.

"She was a wonderful secretary," Dr. Sander said at his Candia home. He said he was told by police she had been found but knew no other details.

DR. SANDER said he hadn't seen Miss Maciolek for about three weeks as she was on vacation until Oct. 1. "Others told me that she appeared pleasant and happy the past few days," Dr. Sander said.

At the Maciolek home, Stella Maciolek, cousin of the 25-year-old secretary, said she had no idea what happened. She was crying and begged off further questions.

While this jaw of a nutcracker was extended from Korea's west coast, attacking United Nations forces put new teeth into the other jaw along the old southeastern beachhead.

They sent two companies into Pohang, the east coast anchor. They poured steel and flamethrowers at the southern end. In between, they carved out a fourth beachhead across the Nakdong river and occupied the wall city of Kasan—for long a hotly-defended high position 12 miles north of Taegu.

Truckloads of Reds from the 140,000 man army in the old beachhead risked a gauntlet of aerial bombs to rush north toward Seoul.

ASSOCIATED PRESS correspondent Russell Brines reported that the first wave went across the Han at 6:45 a. m. (5:45 p. m. Pottstown time Tuesday).

An attempt last night to get across with amphibious tractors was repelled by entrenched Communists firing machineguns. Today the guns of United Nations cruisers loosed a terrific aerial bombardment which wiped out the 200 Reds prior to the morning crossing.

Low-flying planes covered the Marines as they reached the east bank and began pushing toward Seoul.

Clogging roads in the immediate rear of the Marines were tanks and other equipment ready to add their weight to the bid for Seoul, a city of 1,000,000.

THE FIRST CROSSINGS were northwest of Seoul.

Between the leathernecks and Seoul were hills. Red forces—estimated at 400,000 men of the Communist 18th division—were reported dug in at four places.

Big Three Renews Support of W. Reich Against Soviet Move

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (P)—The Big Three foreign ministers today warned Russia to keep hands off Berlin and Western Germany, decided to end the state of war with Germany, and authorized a fast-moving West German police force of 40,000 men.

The warning to the Soviet Union—and the Communists—was not specifically written into a long communiqué issued here at the end of week-long talks by Secretary of State Dean Acheson, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman.

But the ministers renewed their pledge to back up completely the Bonn government and Berlin, and there was no doubt among the diplomats here that that pledge was meant to be heard in the Kremlin.

The Big Three announced the following decisions:

1. To consider any attack against the Western German government or Berlin from any quarter as an attack upon themselves. To do this, they agreed to increase and reinforce their forces in Germany for more effective protection.

2. To terminate the state of war with Germany as soon as possible. This will be a complicated process, requiring for this country the approval of the United States Congress. It will not affect domestic United States legislation as long as the state of war with Japan is still effective.

3. TO INCREASE the mobile police forces in the Western zones from the 10,000 men now authorized to 40,000, equipped and trained to take care of riots and internal disturbances. The guard may be equipped with armored reconnaissance vehicles to permit fast movement. An American official, Henry C. Byroade, director of the Bureau of German Affairs of the U. S. State department, said: "This is not a disguised move to meet the Beretischafen (East German police force)."

4. To study further the question of creating German military units for use in a combined defense force to protect European freedom. French opposition to re-arming Germany was a key factor in holding off an agreement on this point at this time, but the ministers said they would continue conversations from time to time on the subject.

5. To give the firmest support to efforts of the United Nations to resist threats to the peace and achieve peaceful settlements. Immediately after publishing the statement on their meetings the foreign ministers adjourned for lunch.

MISS MACIOLEK, who had testified for Dr. Sander at his world famous trial, returned last Thursday from a three weeks vacation to Pennsylvania and New York.

The brook flows within 600 feet of the Maciolek farm.

Hooksett, a town of 2778, is about halfway between Manchester and Concord.

Dr. Sander was acquitted last Spring of a murder charge in connection with the death of a 59-year-old cancer patient, Mrs. Abbie Borroto. The state charged the 42-year-old physician caused her death by injecting air into her veins.

Churchill Move to End Labor Reign Is Killed

LONDON, Sept. 19 (P)—By a margin of six votes, the Labor government defeated tonight a vigorous attempt by Winston Churchill to force its downfall and a new election.

The Labor party routed out some of its supporters from sick beds to defeat 306 to 300 a motion by Churchill, the Conservative leader, to put the House of Commons on record against placing the steel industry under state control by Jan. 1, 1951.

Churchill had accused the government of "abusing their trusteeship" and fomenting national discord for political purposes.

A change in steel ownership now, he said, would create a "fundamental disturbance" and endanger swift rearmament.

Prime Minister Clement Attlee accepted the issue as one of confidence in his regime. If beaten, he was expected to ask the King to dissolve parliament. That would mean a new national election, probably next month.

WILLIAM WHITELEY, Labor's chief whip in Commons, counted up his forces—including half a dozen sick men who promised to make the trip to Westminster for the big division—and reported to Attlee: "We will win by four votes."

The Laborites announced last week that the state will take over ownership of the steel industry on or about next Jan. 1. The nationalization act permits the take-over any time between then and Dec. 31, 1951.

In the debate, Churchill declared: "There was no need for the prime minister to take this hazardous course at the present time."

"One half of the nation ought not in such circumstances to claim the right, on so slender a margin, to knock the other half about and ride roughshod over them."

SENATE GROUP GIVES OKAY TO GEN. MARSHALL

Armed Services Unit
Votes 9-2 for Approval
To Defense Dep't Post

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (P)—Gen. George C. Marshall got 9 to 2 approval from the Senate armed services committee today to be secretary of defense.

The vote followed an open hearing question session in which the five-star general made it plain that in cabinet councils he expects to insist that the military consequences be taken into account when this country makes international moves.

That was his indirect answer to Republican complaints that he might be a "stooge" in the Defense office for Dean Acheson, present holder of Marshall's old office as secretary of State.

In the cabinet, Marshall will succeed Louis A. Johnson, elbowed out by President Truman after a barrage of criticism in Congress and elsewhere which hit Acheson about as often as Johnson.

The retiring Defense secretary, through with the office at the close of business today under the terms of the President's letter accepting his resignation, quietly checked out of the Pentagon just before the committee huddle with Marshall began. Johnson vetoed reported urgings from the secretaries of the individual services to make a ceremonial occasion of it.

THERE WAS NOBODY to question that Marshall would be overwhelmingly confirmed as Johnson's successor, but Chairman Tydings (D-MD) of the armed services committee made no point of speed.

He told reporters as the meeting ended that the nomination would come up "in the normal course" and he did not think it would be today.

After finishing with Marshall, the committee approved the nomination of Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, or five-star rank.

The two "no" votes in the armed services group were cast by Republicans Knowland (Calif.) and Cain (Wash.) in persistent protest against a military man in the post Congress had reserved for civilians.

26 Killed in Crash Of Navy Transport

PEARL HARBOR, Sept. 19 (AP)—A Navy four-engine transport plane plummeted into the sea off Kwajalein and exploded today, killing all 26 Navy personnel aboard, the Navy here announced.

The plane went down at 7:18 a. m. (1:18 p. m. Pottstown time) immediately after the takeoff, just outside the lagoon at Kwajalein, a 14th Naval district spokesman said.

First reports said an explosion and fire followed after the plane hit the water.

Rescue planes and boats sent out from Kwajalein reported no survivors had been picked up. Four bodies were found in the water.

A patrol bomber, a crash boat and a globetrotter patrol craft reached the scene minutes after the explosion, the spokesman said.

"All we found were two empty life rafts and debris drifting nearby," the spokesman said.

ABOARD THE PLANE were 19 passengers and seven crew members, all Navy personnel. All names were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Witnesses at Kwajalein airport reported nothing unusual in the transport's takeoff.

The lower operator at Kwajalein airport reported no transmission was recorded from the plane after it took off other than a last routine report from the pilot that he was shifting radio frequencies.

Seconds later the plane dipped, sliced into the water and exploded. The 14th Naval district said airport witnesses saw the flash of the explosion before the plane sank.

President of Hungary
Hinted Victim of Purge

VIENNA, Austria, Sept. 19 (P)—Reports reaching Vienna from Hungary today said the Communist Hungarian government may have purged its own president.

The president is Sandor Ronai, a Social Democrat who operated with the Communists and was made head of the presidency of the People's republic late this Summer.

Western sources said the speculative reports were based on Ronai's failure to sign any governmental decrees since the beginning of September.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

LEO DUROCHER recalls with a nostalgic gleam in his eyes a tale about the murderous Yankees of the Ruth-Gehrig era. Mark Koenig led off one inning with a triple to left. Tony Lazzeri sent him in with a double to right. Then the Babe and Lou Gehrig followed with tremendous drives into the right-field bleachers.

That brought up the Yankee third baseman, Jumping Joe Dugan. On the first pitch, he shortened his bat, laid down a perfect bunt, and beat the throw to first with plenty to spare. Manager Miller Huggins came steaming out of the dug-out and bellowed, "I ought to fine you a hundred bucks for breaking up a rally."

Brian Donlevy still gets laughs with his story of the Aberdeen brothers who learned their old father was seriously ill in London, and dispatched the eldest son to look after him. "Wire us when you've been him," said the other two, "and remember you can send ten words for a shilling." That night they received the following wire: "Arrived safely. Father dead. Funeral Tuesday. Rangers two, Celtics one."

Somewhat puzzled and more than a little surprised, we asked the occasion.

Proudly she displayed the solitaire on her third finger, left hand, and announced: "It's a boy—six feet tall and 185 pounds." — The Reader's Digest.

New Berlinville United Brethren To Observe 100th Anniversary

The 100th anniversary of erection and dedication of Zion's Evangelical United Brethren church in New Berlinville will be observed with special services starting tomorrow and ending on Sunday.

In September 1849, the first worship took place in New Berlinville. At that time the late Joshua H. Remminger, who at that time resided with the late Heinrich Gilbert, and lay ill, sent out an invitation to J. Zakel to come to his house and preach. This is how the Evangelical community had its inception.

In March of 1850, the annual conference was held and ministers appointed to New Berlinville. On Aug. 15 of that year, the suggestion was made that a meeting house be erected, but this proved difficult because there were only a few members. Construction began, however, and the place was completed in the middle of November, 1850.

Various events took place in the intervening years, and since 1935 the church has been functioning under both resident and student pastorate.

SPECIAL SERVICES will begin tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock, when Prof. Lewis E. Smith will be the guest speaker. He was pastor of the church in 1922 and 1923, and professor of political science at Albright college. The night will be known as "Family Night."

Conference superintendent of the Eastern district, the Rev. O. A. Hyden of Allentown, will speak at 7:30.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Mest apartments, East Philadelphia street, will celebrate their 26th wedding anniversary today.

Century-Beverly Firm, Textile Union to Set Date Next Tuesday for NLRB Election

Representatives of the Century-Beverly corporation and of the Textile Workers Union of America (CIO) will meet in the company office Tuesday to set a date for a National Labor Relations Board election.

The meeting was announced last night after 163 Century-Beverly workers held an organizational session in CIO hall.

A union-management conference was scheduled for the past Friday, but it was postponed after a company attorney said he received his notice of the meeting only the night before it was to be held.

Tuesday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, union and management representatives will try to agree on a date for the election, in which plant workers will vote whether to join the TWUA as their collective bargaining agent.

SINCE THE MIDDLE of August, TWUA international representatives, backed by CIO locals, have been organizing the 1000 textile workers in Pottstown.

Workers at the Vaughan Knitting company were the first to vote to join the union in an NLRB election.

Last night, it was announced, the organization drive will be extended to approximately 250 more workers in the Pottstown Paper Box company and the Iris Knitting mills.

Speakers at last night's Century-Beverly meeting were Samuel Frost, Frank Sterner and Paul F. Ruth, international representatives, and Morris Riger, assistant regional director.

TONIGHT AT 8 o'clock in CIO hall, Vaughan workers will hold a meeting to elect a negotiating committee and draw up their demands.

Union sources said the workers would call for wage increases, seven paid holidays, vacation up to three weeks, depending on length of service, and company-paid insurance, surgical care and hospitalization for workers and their families.

The Vaughan employees also will choose a by-laws committee. This group will draw up a set of by-laws and submit

Man Sentenced in Fire At New Hope Beauty Shop

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 19 (AP) — A volunteer fireman pleaded guilty to arson today and was sentenced to three to six years in Eastern penitentiary by Bucks County Judge Hiram H. Keller.

TROJANS

PHS

STAN CHAPLIN rates as VIP stuff with the 1950 Trojan gridgers, chiefly because he is the only tested and capable quarterback in the ranks.

A Junior, husky 180-pound Stanley, could be the key to PHS gridiron success this Fall. As the man under, he'll call the plays, handle just about every offensive effort, do much of the kicking and passing, and help solid Sam Green back the pea-green Trojan line.

It is a big bump for the good looking youngster, but the PHS coaching staff thinks Chaplin has the stuff to make good at everything.

A fullback for two years in Junior High, Stan was assigned relief work in two positions—fullback and quarterback—with the 1949 Trojans. In addition, he had a steady defensive job, and he functioned nobly at all posts.

Want of a T-pilot this year dictated his full time switch, and nobody is sorry. His ball-handling has improved wondrously and his generalship is of first water.

A BMOG, Stan is vice-president of the school's Athletic association, plays a good game of basketball and is expected to win a baseball letter before his career is finished. Chaplin is pursuing an academic course and has collegiate aspirations.

DICK HIDDEMAN came from nowhere a month ago to a probable starting center post on Friday night against Upper Merion. The 160-pound Hiddeman is right out of gym class, his most strenuous athletic endeavor heretofore.

An injury to regular Dick Weiser brought on his promotion, and while he has a great deal to learn, Hiddeman is expected to sub in adequately while Weiser is mending.

Lack of coaching and attention will not be one of the newcomers' drawbacks. Hiddeman has been under constant instruction since Weiser's injury. The thick-set Junior will play only on offense Friday night.

Brock Fuller Dies
MILWAUKEE, Sept. 19 (AP)—W. Brock Fuller, 35, nationally known horse show judge, died today of a heart attack at his home here.

(This is the fifth in a series of articles on prospects of Perkiomen Schuylkill Valley league football teams)

BECAUSE they talk about losing football in the same moan-tones as they would discuss the plague in Spring City, it could be a mournful Fall for denizens of that football-frenzied community.

Tides have come and gone and year in, year out, the Spring City High Pirates of astute Coach Gene Groff have rattled authoritative outlasses on the greensward—but this, friends, is ebb tide at SC.

First to admit it is the likeable Groff, who prefaces his gloom with the promise "we'll be in there knocking," and then admits, "it will be a long, long season."

Diplomas ticketed 13 Pirates into SCHS alumni obscurity the past Spring, other expected candidates have shrugged off football and the sparse turnout, while semi-experienced, is short on game savvy.

Groff hopes, however, that by gametime Saturday when they get their first field quiz against an upswinging East Greenville High, his squad will be long on "desire."

"Desire," in Groff's football is the essence and substance of the game—desire to block, desire to tackle, desire to score and desire to win.

"IN THE PAST," the mentor muses, "we've always had that old want-to."

"Why, I've had boys accost me during a game and say, 'coach, I just gotta get in that game.'"

"I'm not sure I've gotten through to these kids yet," he explained. But the odds are that Groff will clear communications sometime between now and Thanksgiving when his charges engage in their yearly tug-o-war with neighboring Roversford.

His philosophy sank into one chappie yesterday during a scrimmage session when the lad was dispatched on a ten-lap trip around the field for failure to block in the open field. When the kid returned to the intramural mix, he had desire.

Not that Groff is necessarily a Spartan taskmaster, but he will not tolerate indifference bobbing around under the blue practice helmets.

THE PIRATES this year will be making their debut as a member of the Perkiomen-Schuylkill Valley conference's rock-ribbed upper football bracket. It includes Boyertown, East Greenville and Roversford besides the Bucs and embraces as fine small school football as you'll find hereabouts.

Desire notwithstanding, Spring City High probably will not figure in the chase for the flag, but history alone earns it respect. Long have the Bucs scorched area gridirons, operating on a free-lance basis, and among their victims in recent years have been the same three conference foes they'll face this Fall.

At this juncture, Groff can count on 22 able-bodied operatives, and one injured regular who is not expected to return to head-knocking exercises until next week.

YOU'LL FIND combat veterans at six posts. The rest are brash young yearlings who must ride desire until experience is theirs.

Captain Horace Carl, a 150-pound holdover, gives the Bucs a tiptop end on the left side of the line. At the other, however, Spring City will open with a raw recruit, 142-pound Jim Haldeman. He takes over in the absence of Lee Eagle who was injured in a recent scrimmage session against Downingtown.

Behind the starting duo is Fred Barry, a senior whose service has been limited hitherto to coverage of two feet of bench. In a pinch, Groff may shift letterman Dick Rosen to end, where he performed last year before a promotion to the running corps this Fall.

Hefty (208) Homer Erb and lighter Bill Hoffman (170) are leading the race for tackle jobs ahead of Marv Chandler, a 174-pound transfer student, and light but lusty Bob Jeffries, a Junior.

At guards, it will be letter-winning Senior Dick Baxter and newcomer Alvin Stipa. 152 pounds of spirit who supplements his limited experience with unlimited eagerness. Harvey Raser, Mel Reimour and Terry Deputy are bidding in the same bracket.

Seasoned Louis Caparro, solid at 170, goes at center, and will keep going until he falls. Soph Doug Beard, 144, is the second liner.

WHILE THE LINE is expected to match previous lines after some concerted drilling, the Buc backfield is strictly undermanned. Groff can call only six ball-movers ready for action, and while the calibre is fair-to-good, there just aren't enough to go around.

Basketball-baseball standout Paul Neborak is the choice to call the plays from a tailback or wingback slot in the Buccaneer single-wing system. A lefthander, ratty Paul can manufacture trouble with his southside passing and has the zip to make off-tackle and ends run click.

Spinner-back Jack Christ, a husky at 165, will be the spoke around which Buc backfield trickery spins. He plunges with zest and is a defensive standout.

Alternating with Neborak at the wing and tailback slots will be letterman Bob Mosteller, the nearest thing to a full-distance as a sophomore in many games of 1949.

Blocking back assignment goes to Don Howe, who will need plenty of push to make his 133 pounds effective in cleave-out tasks.

Next in line and certain of Saturday exercise are Terry Taschner, extra-point specialist, and Dick Rosen, a valuable chap to have around because of his shiftability from line to backfield and back.

GROFF AND HIS lieutenants stress blocking, ad infinitum. Particularly important to the Buc system is the second block, the downfield kayo punch. With that tool honed, the SC offense may develop into a dangerous affair.

Defensively, Spring City is not apt to give anything away free. Line one and line two are both vicious when the foe is moving the freight.

With a few second blocks, escape from any sort of injury woes, and a mite more desire, the Pirates can be a dangerous crew to mix muscles with.

The schedule includes the Greenies, Norco, Boyertown, Wilson, Nether-Providence, Marple Newtown, Upper Merion, Roversford and Schwenksville—a boisterous program.

There is only faint possibility they'll get by East Greenville, and on paper, that should be just the beginning of a bumpy season for the Pirates. But stringing with Groff zeal and SC history, we can see a 50-50 season at worst, and maybe something even neater.

Erntex Knitters Join Main Line Conference

The Erntex Knitters, Pottstown's most proficient basketball unit, has obtained franchise in the strong Main Line league, it was announced yesterday by Jack Pout, manager of the Knitters.

A unanimous vote of loop members taken at a Monday night meeting sent the vacated Drexel Hill franchise to Pottstown and made Erntex the ninth team in the circuit. Others are Abington, Yeadon, Wayne, Lower Merion, Cheltenham, Phoenixville, Haverford and Norristown.

The Knitters, who have had a stranglehold on the City league championship for the past several years, will play each team twice in a 36-game card that begins the first week in November. Home games will be played in the Junior High gym on a working agreement with the City league.

As plans have been laid, the local main line entrant will play feature games of Wednesday night doublebills that will pit two City league units in the preliminaries.

Pottstown probably will open against Norristown, defending champion, on the foe floor.

FOOT PLANS To keep the Knitter lineup that mopped up in the 1949 City league virtually intact, with one notable exception.

New to the squad is Henry Stofko, ball-handling wizard of the 1945 Pottstown High unit. Stofko has been at West Chester State Teachers college for the past four years, but has performed frequently with the Knitters in exhibition contests.

Otherwise, the Knitters will floor a combination of former Trojan greats of various vintage. They include Carlos Trollinger, lean, spring-legged rebound monopolist; high-scoring Dick Bender, burly Claude Reinhart, wispy forwards, Set shot artists Bill Missimer, Josh Collins and Earl Strom; and Joe Pollock from the 1949 Section III Trojan kings.

THE MAIN LINE conference has been in operation for more than a decade and is considered the fastest amateur circuit in the Philadelphia area.

It is headed up by Herb Good of Ardmore, publicity director for the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball association.

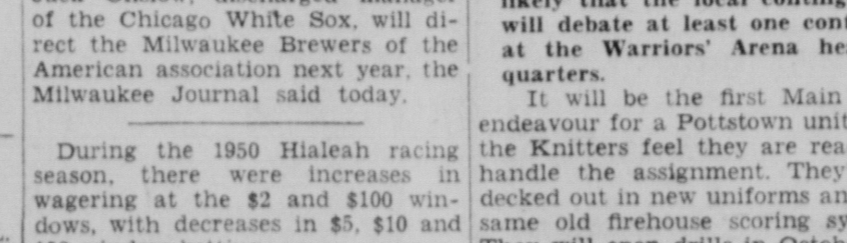

Many Main Line contests are played as preliminaries to Warrior games, and it is highly likely that the local contingent will debate at least one contest at the Warriors' Arena headquarters.

It will be the first Main Line endeavour for a Pottstown unit, and the Knitters feel they are ready to handle the assignment. They'll be decked out in new uniforms and the same old firehouse scoring system. They will open drills in October.

Onslow Hired
MILWAUKEE, Sept. 19 (AP)—Jack Onslow, discharged manager of the Chicago White Sox, will direct the Milwaukee Brewers of the American association next year, the Milwaukee Journal said today.

During the 1950 Hialeah racing season, there were increases in wagering at the $2 and $100 windows, with decreases in $5, $10 and $50 window betting.

Seniors Nip Browsers 34-33, Face Erntex in Cage Final

Louie Iezzi climaxed a startling uphill rally with a one-handed ringer from the foul tape in the final minute last night to give the Senior Trojans a tinging 34-33 triumph over Brower's Boys and win for them a spot opposite the Erntex Knitters in the finals of the Outdoor basketball tournament.

The final fray will be run off at 6:45 tonight in the Junior High gym. The scene of last night's thriller. Should the Seniors pull an upset and defeat the Knitters, a deciding contest will be played on Wednesday night.

If the Knitters cop the decision tonight, it will be all over since the Erntex team already has handed the Seniors one licking in the double elimination affair.

Injury, Illness Riddle Eagles' Running Corps

By GARY TROLLINGER

And then there was one. That's all that remained standing of Roversford High's starting backfield after sickness had sidelined two probable starting backs to add to Paul Fearheller's name on the inactive list.

Fearheller bowed out for an indefinite period last Friday when he tore an ankle muscle, and after yesterday's scrimmage with Conshohocken High, fullback Mike Krasley took sick. Another halfback, Al Fisher, was already downed with an attack of yellow jaundice, and will also be out for an indefinite time.

Enidio Cinirpino, steady Eagle quarter, is still around, even though there is a slight possibility that he had his nose mashed in yesterday's mix with the Conshohocken team.

Another regular to take the count was Ebert Evans, 185-pound guard, who played 45 minutes before realizing that his nose had been punched out of position by someone's cleat.

Of the four, Fearheller, Fisher, Evans, and Krasley—only the latter has any chance of appearing in the season and Perk opener versus Boyertown Saturday.

However, Bob McNelly, Ford coach, still has ends Bob Troxel and Mike Ralston; tackles Bill Judge and Gene Lincoln; guard Bill Kolp; and center Nick Dinnocenti to cheer his lot. All were either on or near the first eleven in '49 with the exception of Kolp, whose work thus far as a partner with Evans has been far above par.

Tackles Roy Krasley and 135-pounder Jerry Hoff will be the probable recipients of tickets to switch guard to try to plug the whopping big hole left by Evans' injury.

In the backfield, halfbacks Lou Alexander, ninth-grader Charley Miller, and soph Gary Grater are the logical contenders for Fearheller's and Fisher's berths. Junior fullback Armond Cinirpino has the inside track should Krasley's illness fail to clear up in time for the battle with the Bears.

Parsons to Race At Allentown Fair

ALLENTOWN, Sept. 18 — Miss Reba Schall, secretary of the Great Allentown Fair, today announced that race promoter Sam Nunis had signed Indianapolis and National AAA champion Johnnie Parsons to compete in the AAA big-car races closing the Fair Saturday afternoon.

Parsons' appearance will mark the first time in Fair history that an Indianapolis champion has raced here during the same year in which he won the title.

The 32-year-old California speedster, since winning the Hoosier Classic, has proved to be the most popular "500" victor in years. Unlike other prima donnas emanating from Indianapolis, Parsons has actually shown the fans that he is and always will be a race driver.

POLLOCK SHINES IN ARMY DRILLS

WEST POINT, Sept. 19 (AP)—Vic Pollock, veteran halfback from Linfield, looms as a key operative in the Army backfield as the Cadets prepare for their opening game with Colgate at Michie Stadium two weeks hence.

Pollock, who spelled both Jimmy Cain and Frank Fischl at the halfback posts in 1949, has been turning in the best ball carrying performances of any of the backs during the scrimmage drills.

Furthering Pollock's position in Coach Earl Blaik's plans is the fact that both Cain and Fischl have been hampered with injuries the past two weeks.

Jalopies Vie At Sanatoga

It will be Oldtimer Night at Sanatoga Speedway tonight when racing will be restricted to open competition for cars of 1930-or-earlier vintage.

The program supplants the regular midweek stock car racing program at the blacktopped fifth-mile runway, two miles East of Pottstown.

A score or more of jalopies is expected to compete in the debut of oldtimers at the track. Favored to win the feature will be Charlie "Machine Gun" Kelly, who has copped two previous victories in exhibition matches at Sanatoga.

Kelly drives a 1930 Packard, one of latest model autos expected to compete tonight.

Rampant Red Sox Confident Of Victory in Flag Chase

CLEVELAND, Sept. 19 (AP)—A relentless all-morning rain made play impossible between the pennant-feverish Boston Red Sox and the barely-breathing Cleveland Indians today but it failed to dampen the spirits of Steve O'Neill and his rollicking Red Sox.

The genial Boston manager, whose team has won 27 of its last 32 games to climb from fourth into second place in the swirling American League race, is looking forward to tomorrow's doubleheader here with relief.

"The boys are pepped up," he said as he watched the raindrops battering against the windows of the visiting clubhouse. "They are convinced they're going to win the flag. I agree with them."

"I would have liked to get today's game in," the flat-nosed former Cleveland mentor continued. "It is easier to win them one at a time. But we're not right now and it doesn't matter whether we play one or two."

"THE BOYS HAVE AN added incentive. They are out to disprove the fallacy that they're a bad road club."

On this trip thus far the Sox have won four out of six. Their over-all season record is 37-34. Since O'Neill took over the reins from Joe McCarthy last June 23, Boston has won 57 of its 83 games. On the road the club took 25 of 40.

O'Neill laughed off the suggestion that Municipal Stadium is a jinx park for the Red Sox. Boston has won but four of 20 games here in two years.

Southpaw Chuck Stobbs (11-6) and veteran Joe Dobson (15-8) are slated to pitch for Boston tomorrow. They will be opposed by Bob Lemon (20-11) and Earl Wynn (16-8). Both Boston hurlers have been rested for a week. Lemon, tied with New York's Vic Raschi as the top twirler in the circuit, will be making his sixth attempt to notch his 21st triumph.

In addition to throwing their two best pitchers against the Red Sox, the Indians will present their strongest lineup. Dale Mitchell, recovered from a leg injury, will be back at his accustomed spot in left field. The veteran Joe Gordon will return to second replacing the injured Bob Avila.

"I'M PLAYING no favorites," said Cleveland pilot Lou Boudreau who got his major league start under O'Neill. "We'll play the Red Sox the same way we played the Yankees and the way we'll play the Tigers later on. Every man in the lineup will be the best man available."

Cleveland is through with New York but has six to go with Detroit after the two with Boston. O'Neill said that after tomorrow's bargain bill, the Red Sox will engage the front-running Yankees two weekend games in New York. After that the Yanks have two double-headers in a row with Washington while Boston plays only one twin bill with the last place Athletics in Philadelphia.

"Then we play the last six games of the season at home," Steve said with finality. "That should do it, brother."

Coin Flip to Decide Possible AL Playoffs

CHICAGO, Sept. 19 (AP)—A coin tossing ceremony will be held tomorrow to determine the order of playoff in the American League in the event the pennant race winds up in a two or three way tie for first place.

The New York, Boston and Detroit clubs have agreed to the procedure. The ceremony will be in the office of Will Harridge, American League president.

Sox Idle, Tigers Win

Roberts Loses; Braves Cop

CHICAGO, Sept. 19 (AP)—Nelson Fox's two-run triple in the seventh inning sliced New York's American League lead to two percentage points or a half game tonight as Chicago's Bob Cain stopped the Yanks, 4-3, before 24,025 roaring fans.

The Yankees loss, permitting both idle Boston and victorious Detroit to gain in the frenzied race, was doubly expensive because it cost them the services of Vic Raschi, their 20-game winning pitching ace.

Raschi, sailing along behind a 3-2 lead, suddenly left the game at the start of the last half of the seventh inning. It was announced that his arm "didn't feel right."

It was not known immediately if he would miss a turn.

Tom Ferrick, who took up the burden, failed. A single by Chico Carrasquel to left field with one out was followed by Gus Niarhos' booming double to left. Ferrick made Cain ground out but Fox, a 239 hitter, poled a long triple to right center between Joe DiMaggio and Hank Bauer. Before it could be retrieved, both runs were in. That was the ball game.

Joe DiMaggio's 31st homer in the fourth inning and Yogi Berra's 24th in the sixth with Phil Rizzuto on base gave the Yanks all their runs. But wasn't enough to stand up after Raschi left.

Chicago got to Yogi for one in the third on Cain's infield single and Floyd Baker's second straight double to left. A home run drive by Eddie Robinson, his 20th, into the right field seats, cut the Yankee margin in the sixth.

Cain, the slender rookie southpaw who is making a career of beating the Yankees, did it for the fourth time. The Yankees have also added four losses to his 9-11 season record. The 25-year-old from Salina, Kansas gave up only four hits tonight, none after Berra's homer in the sixth.

Giants May Move Jersey City IL Club; TV Blamed

JERSEY CITY, Sept. 19 (AP)—Television was blamed for another minor league club's difficulties today as the New York Giants baseball club disclosed the possible sale or transfer of their Jersey City farm team.

Charles Feeney, youthful vice president of the Giants, said no decision had been reached on the status of the International league club which attracted only 70,000 paid admissions this season while finishing fourth.

There were a variety of factors responsible for the low attendance, but television was considerably important, Feeney said. "Most people apparently preferred to see a major league club televised at home or in a tavern rather than come out to our games."

RUMORS of a sale or transfer were more numerous than paying customers at Roosevelt Stadium all season. The question was brought to a head today by a report in the Bayonne Times quoting Horace Stoneham, owner and president of the New York club, as saying the club would not come back to Jersey City next season.

But Feeney said the club faced a "bad financial situation" here and that it was very possible the club had lost $100,000, as the Times story said.

Jersey City's proximity to New York also contributed to the low attendance, Feeney said.

Sugar Ray Signs to Meet Bobo Olson for "Crown"

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19 (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson today signed to defend the Pennsylvania version of his middleweight title against Carl (Bobo) Olson of Honolulu.

Robinson, welterweight king, agreed to meet Olson in a 15-rounder at The Arena here on Oct. 26.

With state athletic commissioner John (Ox) DaGrosa okaying the pact, Robinson's manager, George Gainford, affixed the signature. Robinson will get 40 percent of the gate with Olson getting 20 percent.

Vets Spark Tigers

DETROIT, Sept. 19 (AP)—King Kong Charlie Keller and Pat Mullin, a pair of Detroit Tiger "veterans," went on a terrific hitting spree today as the Bengals blasted the Philadelphia Athletics 12-4 to move back into a tie with Boston for second place in the American League race.

The victory left the Tigers one game behind the pace-setting New York Yankees, who are due to play Chicago tonight. Boston was rained out at Cleveland this afternoon.

Keller, who had been used solely as a pinch-hitter up to today, made his debut in the Tiger starting lineup a memorable one as he slammed out four hits, including his first two home runs of the 1950 campaign and batted in five runs.

Mullin, the Tigers' No. 2 pinch-hitter, had started only a couple games, but he too made it a big day with a double and his second home run of the year with two RBIs.

Nats Win

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—The Whittington Senators had easy going with 15 hits off Ned Garver tonight and defeated the St. Louis Browns 5 to 3. Joe Haynes held the Browns to six hits until he was routed in the eighth inning, and Mickey Harris stood off a ninth-inning threat by St. Louis.

That southpaw, the third Cardinal pitcher, got underway by walking Earl Torgeson. Thereupon Bob Elliott beat out an infield hit on which Eddie Miller tried to force Torgeson at second base.

Harry Brecheen, the Cardinals' starting pitcher, hit the first homer of his National League career off Sain in the fourth inning.

That southpaw, the third Cardinal pitcher, got underway by walking Earl Torgeson. Thereupon Bob Elliott beat out an infield hit on which Eddie Miller tried to force Torgeson at second base.

Robinson won Pennsylvania recognition as middleweight champ last June 3 when he defeated Robert Villmain of France in a 15-rounder at the Municipal Stadium. He has defended the title once, scoring a 52-second knockout over Jose Basora in Scranton Aug. 23.

Elsewhere in the world Jake La Motta is recognized as middleweight king.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19 (AP)—Hank Sauer's 30th home run and two hit pitching by Frank Hiller gave the Chicago Cubs a 1 to 0 victory over the league leading Philadelphia Phillies tonight and thwarted Robin Roberts' effort to become the first 20 game winner for the Phils since 1917.

Roberts pitched four hit ball, good enough to win most ordinary ball games, but the 30-year-old Hiller hurled in magnificent fashion for the Cubs. In winning his 11th victory of the season against five defeats, Hiller faced but 27 batters.

Rookie outfielder Jack Mayo singled in the fifth and was erased in a double play. Shortstop Granny Hamner was caught in a run down after singling in the eighth.

A crowd of 20,404 saw the fastest game of the year at Shibe Park as Roberts and Hiller completed the game in one hour and 35 minutes. Roberts suffered his ninth loss in trying for the second time to gain his 20th victory, a feat last accomplished by a Phillies' pitcher in 1917 when the famed Grover Cleveland Alexander won 30 and lost 13.

The 24-year-old right-hander might still be pitching but for one bad pitch to an ill Phil nemesis, husky Sauer. The Cub slugger smashed one of Roberts' fast balls into the left field seats in the fifth inning, his eighth circuit clout against Philadelphia pitching this year.

Just to show that he plays no favorites, Sauer evened the count on his homers. Now he has hit four against the Phils in Shibe Park and four at Wrigley Field, Chicago.

The only other hits off Roberts were two singles by Carmen Mauro and a mighty triple over center fielder Richie Ashburn's head in the sixth by Ransom Jackson. The Cub third sacker was left stranded when Mauro bounced out.

With the exception of the two hits, only three balls were hit out of the infield off Hiller. First baseman Preston Ward made 16 putouts and was credited with two assists. Hiller, purchased by the Cubs from the New York Yankees for $25,000 prior to the 1950 season, struck out five and for the second time this season failed to walk a batter.

Brooks Sweep

BROOKLYN, Sept. 19 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers strengthened their grip on third place by taking the Pirates in both ends of a doubleheader before 2637 today. The 14-3 and 3-2 triumphs made it nine in a row for Brooklyn over Pittsburgh and 17 out of 20.

It was a day for home run hitting with two each by Duke Snider and Gil Hodges, who drove in 11 runs for Brooklyn, and Ralph Kiner hitting number 44 and 45 in the first game. Meanwhile Don Newcombe coasted to his 18th victory. One more than he won in his freshman season, last year.

Braves Score

BOSTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—Tommy Holmes' scratch single with two out and the bases loaded in the ninth enabled the Boston Braves to pull out an 8-7 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals tonight to protect their National League second-place standing. The Boston triumph was registered despite five infield errors.

The Tribesmen were trailing by one run when they took their last turns at bat. After Roy Hartsfield struck out, Sam Jethroe singled and Ted Wilks was replaced by Al Brazle.

That southpaw, the third Cardinal pitcher, got underway by walking Earl Torgeson. Thereupon Bob Elliott beat out an infield hit on which Eddie Miller tried to force Torgeson at second base.

Harry Brecheen, the Cardinals' starting pitcher, hit the first homer of his National League career off Sain in the fourth inning.

Colts Release George Blanda

BALTIMORE, Sept. 19 (AP)—Coach Clem Crowe put a quick end today to speculation that Y. A. Tittle, pro passing star of the past two seasons, might be let go by the Baltimore Colts.

Instead, Crowe released George Blanda, former Kentucky U. star obtained recently from the Chicago Bears.

"We can't afford to keep three offensive quarterbacks," said Crowe. "It's a passing game this professional football and Tittle can throw the ball as well as anybody in this business."

The Colts also have Adrian Burk, formerly of Baylor, as quarterback.

The release of Blanda and raising of the National Football league squad limit to 33 permitted the Colts to add two players. They chose John Schneider, All-America guard at Penn last year who was cut by the Philadelphia Eagles, and recalled fullback George Bukars, released just a week ago.

State Defense Worries Coach

STATE COLLEGE, Sept. 19 (AP)—Penn State's football coach, Rip Engle, said today he is worried about the "Nitty Gritty" defense.

Engle said pre-season scrimmages with four college teams proved Penn State has the ability to score but is not nearly so tough on defense.

"We'll do everything we can to make it interesting for the opposition," Engle said. "But I'm frankly worried about our defense. It hasn't progressed nearly as well as our offense."

USW Leaders Plan Pittsburgh Meeting; Pay Demands Hinted

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19 (P)—Top strategists of the CIO United Steel Workers meet here Thursday and Friday for sessions that may bring a demand to boost wages of nearly 1,000,000 unionists.

President Philip Murray of both the CIO and the Steel Workers called the USW's executive board into session amid widespread speculation that a wage increase demand is in the works.

Murray has left no doubt that he considers steel industry profits "fabulous."

Wage gains won by the CIO United Auto Workers in recent weeks added pressure to demands from the USW rank and file for fatter pay envelopes to meet higher living costs.

Steelworkers now earn a national average of $1.70 an hour compared to about $1.75 for auto-workers. Before recent pay gains, the average auto worker earned $1.65.

ANY DECISION to seek a pay boost in steel will originate with the union's executive board. It is the big union's chief policy making group. The board is composed of Murray, other international officers and 33 union district directors.

The board will have before it a resolution from a group of 28,000 steelworkers in the Pittsburgh area which asks that a wage hike be sought. The resolution cites "the tremendous increase in the cost of living" and the "huge profits of the steel industry."

Declaring "the cost of living has spiraled upward at an amazing speed," the resolution urges "strenuous efforts to be made to regain lost ground."

The reference to lost ground apparently concerns the futile fight the union made last year for fourth round pay increases. The USW gave up its wage demands then on the recommendation of a Presidential Fact Finding board.

It settled a 2-day strike by accepting a pension and insurance program. Under the industry wide contracts signed at the end of that national strike, the union may re-open wage provisions next Nov. 1. If no agreement is reached with industry by Dec. 31, the union is free to strike Jan. 1.

THE POSSIBILITY of a wage-price freeze by government is a big factor. Union leaders want to win their objectives before the lid is slapped on—if it comes. President Truman has said he doesn't want mandatory controls now. But industry sources think a snowballing wave of pay-booms could speed favorable ceilings on both prices and wages.

The steelworkers are not expected to make a specific wage demand. If they follow the pattern of past years, they merely will call for "a substantial wage increase," amount unstated.

So far, pay jumps granted this year in all industries average about 10 cents an hour, according to Iron Age, steel industry trade journal.

Action of the executive board, which may not be made public, probably will be ratified at a session of the union's wage policy committee.

That committee is composed of the executive board, plus representatives of local unions in all parts of the country. No date has been set for that meeting, but it is expected to be held late next month.

Leathernecks Jam Causeway on Way to Inchon

The narrow stone causeway leading from Wolmi Island to Inchon on the west coast of Korea overflows with U. S. Marines after they landed "in force" on the North Korean stronghold. A leatherneck (right) hauls one of the invasion craft up to the causeway. With Inchon captured, American forces fast closed in on the city of Seoul and stormed the vital Kimpo airport.

General Assembly Turns Down India Move To Seal Red China, Passes Study Plan

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 (P)—The United Nations General Assembly opened its fifth session today and immediately rejected a Russian-supported Indian proposal to give China's seat to the Communist Peiping government.

Instead, it adopted a Canadian proposal to set up a seven-nation committee to study the question of Chinese representation and report back to the assembly with its recommendations.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei V. Vishinskiy declared the assembly's action was "illegal and incorrect," but he didn't walk out of the jammed and tense chamber.

After the assembly adjourned last December, the Soviet delegation boycotted meetings of other U. N. groups for seven months rather than sit with Chinese Nationalist representatives.

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson led the opposition to the plan submitted by India's Sir Benegal Rau.

"Vote on it now and vote it down," he demanded of the delegates from 59 nations a few minutes after the session opened at 3:15 p. m. Pottstown time.

After almost three months of debate, the assembly defeated the resolutions 33-16 with ten abstentions.

THE ASSEMBLY also voted down two Russian resolutions, one calling for the ousting of the Chinese Nationalists and the other for the seating of the Chinese Communists. The votes were 38-10 with eight abstentions on the first, and 37-11 with eight abstentions on the second.

The vote on the Canadian proposal was 42 for, nine against and six abstentions.

This was the first time the assembly has ever taken up a major issue before disposing of routine organizational problems. The first day of each session has always been devoted to election of officers and speeches by leading delegates setting forth, in general terms, the position they will take on various questions.

After disposing of the Chinese question, the assembly elected Nasrallah Entezam of Iran as president of the fifth session to succeed Carlos P. Romulo of the Philippines. He won on the first ballot over Sir Mohammed Zafrullah Khan of Pakistan, Viliam Siroky of Czechoslovakia and Stefan Wierbowski of Poland.

The assembly then adjourned.

PLANES ORDERED
SANTA MONICA, Calif., Sept. 19 (P)—The Navy Bureau of Aeronautics and Douglas Aircraft co. today announced that the Navy has ordered a fleet of Douglas R6D1's, the cargo version of the DC6.

MOON'S TOTAL ECLIPSE Monday to Last 45 Minutes; Final One Visible Till '53
Lovers and other persons interested in moonlight won't have any of it for 45 minutes Monday night.

A total eclipse will begin at 10:53 o'clock and end at 11:39 o'clock. During that time, weather permitting, all that will be seen of the moon will be a dull coppery orb glowing in the sky about midway between horizon and zenith.

For eclipse fans the spectacle will be a "must." There won't be another total lunar eclipse visible from the United States until Jan. 29, 1953.

Like all other total eclipses, the one Monday night will pass through three shadows. Before and after hitting the dense round shadow of the earth (umbra) it will pass through the partial shadow (penumbra), twice the umbra's size, which rings the dense shadow.

THE TIME SCHEDULE—it will be in Standard time, which takes effect Sunday morning—for the eclipse is: enters umbra, 8:31 p. m.; enters total phase, 10:53 p. m.; begins emerging from total phase, 11:39 p. m.; completely out of umbra, 1:01 a. m.; completely out of penumbra, 2:13 a. m.

Enters penumbra, 8:20 p. m.;

The shadow will spread from the eastern edge of the moon and the last part to be engulfed by darkness will be its northwestern rim. The first part to be illuminated after total phase will be the northeastern tip.

During the penumbra, the moon will be clearly visible but its light will be dimmed. Before and after eclipse it will be a brilliant full moon.

The harvest moon, incidentally, is the full moon nearest the autumnal equinox (the first day of Fall, Sept. 23). The angle between the harvest moon's orbit and the horizon is less than any of the other approximately 13 full moons of the year.

SOME DAY PEOPLE may be able to watch lunar eclipses from the moon itself, but they had better be well insulated for the show.

When the moon is in sunlight, the temperature hits 212 degrees. When it's dark, the temperature drops to 116 degrees below zero. And during an eclipse, the sunlight side goes through this 378-degree range in a matter of hours.

The lack of atmosphere on the satellite is responsible for the wild variations.

GI Capture of Kimpo Paves Way for Start Of New Korea Airlift

By O. H. P. KING
A SOUTHERN JAPAN AIR BASE, Sept. 19—(Delayed)—Flying boxcars shuttled back and forth between this large field in Southern Japan and Seoul's Kimpo airfield in Korea today, starting this war's largest airlift.

Maj. Gen. William H. Turner, famous as the 43-year-old boss of the Berlin airlift during the Russian blockade, has charge of this operation. His outfit is called the Far East Air Force Combat Cargo command.

I have just returned from Kimpo airfield, where I watched the arrival of many heavily loaded Fairchild 119 and C54 transports. I flew back to this base of operations tonight—the only passenger on an empty four-engine C54 manned by members of the famous "Bully Beef" squadron.

I flew to Inchon harbor on a Navy Martin Mariner, then finally rode to the beach aboard an LST. In this inner basin there were a dozen American-craft high and dry on the mud flats, but the incoming tide would refloat most of them.

Along part of the way to Kimpo airfield were wrecked factories and eight or ten burned-out North Korean tanks.

CAPTURED BY MARINES Sunday, Kimpo airfield is now regarded as secure.

The last time I saw Kimpo was June 26, when I was evacuated with hundreds of other Americans on the day before the Communists entered Seoul.

But the scene today reminded me more of June 22, the last Thursday before war started. On that day Kimpo was alive with activity. Brig. Gen. William L. Roberts, who had headed the American Military Advisory group to the Korean army, was departing for home.

Much of Seoul was there to see him off. Several hundred of South Korea's finest troops stood in proud array. It was a gala occasion, and no one had an inkling that 63 hours later some of these men would be killed resisting invading North Koreans.

Today soldiers stood facing a gutted air terminal. The larger hangar to the north is nothing but a spider web of girders. A dozen or more piles of junk that once were planes dot the field. The runways are clear.
